An Act to permit Robert John Turner to practise as Solicitor in the Court of Chancery.

[17th August, 1841.]

WHEREAS Robert John Turner, of the Town of Kingston, in the Midland District, Gentleman, hath by his Petition represented, that he is a duly admitted Solicitor, and has practised in the High Court of Chancery and the Courts of Queen's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer in England, for a period of eighteen years and upwards, and that he has for some time past been engaged in the profession of an Equity Draftsman in this Province, and hath prayed that an Act may be passed to authorize the Court of Chancery, in this Province, to admit him to practise therein as a Solicitor; and whereas it is expedient to comply with the prayer of the said Petition; Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall and may be lawful for the High Court of Chancery in this Province, in its discretion, to admit the said Robert John Turner to practise as Solicitor in the said Court, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Preamble.

Robert John Turner, may be admitted to the High Court of Chancery to practise as a Solicitor.
