

ANNO OCTAVO
VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

CAP. CIV.

An Act to incorporate The High School of Montreal.

[17th March, 1845.]

WHEREAS there now exists in the City of Montreal an Institution known as The High School of Montreal having for its design to afford a course of instruction to include the Greek, Latin, French and English Languages, Writing, Arithmetic and Mathematics, and such other branches of Science and General Literature as it may be deemed proper from time to time to introduce; And whereas David Torrance, Michael McCulloch, Benjamin Holmes, William Murray, John J. Day, Joseph Savage, Charles Geddes, Benjamin H. Lemoine, George W. Campbell, William C. Meredith, William Lunn, James Ferrier, John Young, and David Davidson, the present Directors of the said Institution, have by their Petition represented that it would be beneficial to the interests of the community, and would tend to the success and prosperity of the said Institution that it should be incorporated; And whereas it is deemed expedient to grant the prayer of the said Petition: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said David Torrance, Michael McCulloch, Benjamin Holmes, William Murray, John J. Day, Joseph Savage, Charles Geddes, Benjamin H. Lemoine, George W. Campbell, William C. Meredith, William Lunn, James Ferrier, John Young, and David Davidson, the present Directors of the said Institution, and their successors, and such other persons as now are or shall or may hereafter become members or proprietors of the said Institution,
