

ANNO OCTAVO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

CAP. XCVII.

An Act to approve and confirm an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland relating to the Gaspé Fishery and Coal Mining Company.

[10th February, 1845.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the seventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, An Act to incorporate Charles Cunningham, Richard Norman, Samuel Amory, and others, forming a Joint Stock Company for carrying on the Fishery in the Gaspé District and Gulf of Saint Lawrence, and Coal Mining in the said District; And whereas by the twenty-second section of the said Act it was enacted, that the said Act should not be in force nor have effect until the said Company should have obtained a Charter from Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in conformity to the provisions thereof, in so far as regards matters to be transacted or things to be done out of or beyond the limits of this Province; And whereas the said Charles Cunningham, Richard Norman and Samuel Amory, after the passing of the said Act, presented their Memorial to Her Majesty's Government, stating or referring to the provisions of the said Act, and praying that Her Majesty would be graciously pleased to grant a Charter to the said Gaspé Fishery and Coal Mining Company, pursuant to the said twenty-second section of the said Act; And whereas Her Majesty's Government deemed it advisable that instead of a Charter from Her Majesty, as aforesaid, the said Charles Cunningham, Richard Norman and Samuel Amory, should introduce a Bill into the House of Commons for the purpose of giving them the privileges of incorporation and in order to obtain the sanction of the supreme authority of the Imperial Parliament for the establishment and incorporation of the said Gaspé Fishery and Coal Mining Company; And whereas the said Charles Cunningham, Richard Norman and Samuel Amory, caused a Bill to be introduced into the House
