[ 30th May, 1849. ]

WHEREAS Henry John Noad, James Gibb, T. H. Dunn, Henry LeMesurier, and William Stevenson, by their humble Petition in this behalf, have represented that an Association has been formed in the City of Quebec, in which they and others have become Subscribers and Stockholders for the purpose of transporting Goods, Merchandize and Passengers, from and to Quebec, Lake Champlain, the Upper Lakes, and other places,—that the Capital Stock of the said Association is limited to forty thousand pounds current money of this Province, divided into four hundred shares of one hundred pounds each,—that one hundred and fifty-four shares have been subscribed,—and that the full amount thereof, to wit, the sum of fifteen thousand four hundred pounds said current money, has been paid in, and is held by the said Association, and have prayed that for the better affecting the purposes of their Association, they, their successors and assigns, be incorporated; And whereas the said Association has built and bought divers steam vessels and barges, and has successfully prosecuted the said undertaking for about six years, under the name of The Quebec Forwarding Company; And whereas divers debts are now due to them by divers parties who have contracted with them, in the enforcing payment of which debts technical difficulties have arisen, by reason of the multiplicity of the names of the parties interested in the said Association; And whereas also, divers individual members of the said Association have been exposed to suits at law on account of the business of the Company, and other difficulties and embarrassments in the management of the affairs thereof have occurred from the same cause; And whereas the said Company tends to facilitate and promote the inland navigation of the Province: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Henry John Noad, James Gibb, T.
