

VIII. And be it enacted, That where the original taking of the goods, chattels, or other personal property, is not complained of, but the action is founded on a wrongful detention thereof, the declaration shall conform to the Writ, and may be the same as in an action of detinue, and where the action is founded upon a wrongful taking and detention of the property aforesaid, it shall not be necessary for the Plaintiff to state in his declaration a place certain within the city, town, township or village as that where the property was taken; provided always, that if the Defendant, in any such action last aforesaid, justifies or avows the right to take or distrain any such goods, chattels, or other property aforesaid, in or upon any place or premises, in respect of which the same would be liable to forfeiture, distress for rent, damage, feasant custom, rate or duty, by reason of any law, usage or custom now existing and in force, such Defendant shall state in such plea of justification or avowry a place certain within the City, Town, Township or Village within the County, as that where such property was so distrained or taken.

Declaration to be made to suit the case, &c.

Proviso: if the defendant avows and justifies.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Defendant shall be entitled to the same pleas in abatement or bar as heretofore, and may plead as many matters in defence as he shall think necessary, and which would by law constitute a legal defence, if such action were an action of trespass, when the taking be complained of, or were an action of detinue when the detention only be complained of.

What pleas and matters of defence the defendant shall have.

X. And be it enacted, That the property to be replevied, or any part thereof, be secured or concealed in any dwelling house or other building or enclosure of the Defendant, or of any other person holding the same for him, and if the Sheriff shall have publicly demanded from the owner and occupant of the premises deliverance thereof, and if the same be not delivered to him within twenty-four hours after such demand made, he may or shall, if necessary, break open such house, building or enclosure for the purpose of replevying such property or any part thereof, and shall make replevin according to the Writ aforesaid, and that if the property to be replevied or any part thereof be concealed either about the person or the premises of the Defendant or any other person holding the same for him, and if the Sheriff shall have demanded from the Defendant, or such other person aforesaid, deliverance thereof, he shall and may, if necessary, search and examine the person and premises of the Defendant, or of such other person aforesaid, for the purpose of replevying such property or any part thereof, and shall make replevin according to the Writ aforesaid.

Sheriff may in certain cases break open any house, &c., in which the goods replevied are.

An Act to amend the Upper Canada Jurors' Act of one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to make some further provisions for the better accomplishment of the object thereof.

[30th August, 1851.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend some of the provisions of the Act passed in the last Session of the Parliament of this Province, chaptered fifty-five, and intituled, An Act for the consolidation and amendment of the Laws relative to Jurors, Juries and Inquests in that part of this Province called Upper Canada, and to make some further provisions for the better accomplishment of the object thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That where there shall not appear as many as twelve of the Grand Jurors summoned upon any Panel returned upon any Precept to any Court of Criminal Jurisdiction, every such

Preamble.

13 & 14 Vict. c. 55.

When so many as twelve Grand Jurors shall not appear, the Court may order the Sheriff to supply the defect by Talesmen.

such Court, upon request made for the Queen by Her Attorney or Solicitor General, or any of Her Counsel Learned in the Law, or in their absence by any one thereto authorized or assigned by such Court, shall command the Sheriff or other Officer or Minister to whom the making of the return shall belong, to name and appoint, as often as need shall require, so many of such other able men of the County, Union of Counties or City, as the case may be, then present, as shall make up a Grand Inquest of twelve, and the Sheriff or other Officer or Minister aforesaid, shall, at such command of the Court, return such men duly qualified as shall be present or can be found to serve on such Grand Inquests, and shall add and annex their names to the Panel returned upon such Precept; and the Court shall proceed with those Grand Jurors who were before empannelled, together with the Talesmen so newly added and annexed, as if all the said Jurors had been originally returned upon such precept.

Sect. 3 of Act of U. C. 10 G. 4, c. 1, and sect. 98, 99, 100 and 101 of 13 & 14 Vict., c. 55, repealed.

Proviso as to things already done.

II. And be it enacted, That the third section of the Act of the Parliament of the late Province of Upper Canada, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, chaptered one, and intituled, An Act to provide for the admission of the evidence of Quakers, Menonists, Tunkers and Moravians, in criminal cases, and also the ninety-eighth, ninety-ninth, one hundredth, and one hundred and first sections of the said Upper Canada Jurors' Act of one thousand eight hundred and fifty, shall be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided always, nevertheless, that notwithstanding such repeal, all acts which might have been done, and all proceedings which might have been taken or prosecuted relating to any offences or neglects which may have been committed, or to any matters which shall have happened, or to any moneys which shall have become due, or to any fines or penalties which shall have been incurred before the day on which this Act shall come into operation, shall and may still be done or prosecuted, and the offences and omissions may be dealt with and punished, and the moneys may be recovered and dealt with, and the fines and penalties may be imposed and applied, as if the said Act and sections hereby repealed continued in force.

Recital.

Officers employed in certain duties under 13 & 14 Vict. c. 55, to be entitled to the allowance for such services under this Act.

III. And whereas the experience of the past year has shown that the fees allowed by the said Upper Canada Jurors' Act of one thousand eight hundred and fifty, were in most respects wholly disproportioned to the amount of labor and responsibility imposed by the said Act, involving in some cases an actual disbursement of money by the officers in procuring the necessary aid to complete the work within the time prescribed by the said Act; and it is therefore just that the parties should be better remunerated for the services so performed by them respectively: Be it therefore enacted, That the different officers who performed the duties required of them by the said Act, for the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, shall be entitled to receive therefor the fees prescribed for such services by the said Act, as amended by this Act; and that upon their presenting their accounts for the same verified in the manner prescribed by the said Act as so amended, it shall be the duty of the different Municipal Treasurers and Chamberlains to whom the payment of such officers belonged, according to the directions of the said Act, to pay such officers the amount of such respective accounts, out of the like funds as by the said Act was directed with respect to the fees prescribed thereby, deducting from such accounts respectively the amount of any moneys which such officers may have previously received under the said Act.

Certain portions of the said Act designated in Schedule A, Column 1, repealed, and other provisions substituted.

IV. And be it enacted, That the several words, phrases and sentences of the Upper Canada Jurors' Act of one thousand eight hundred and fifty, to be found in the first column of the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked A, numbered from one to twenty-three inclusive, and set forth in the second column of the said Schedule, as such several words, phrases and sentences are contained in those several parts of the several and respective sections and provisos of the said Act particularly referred to in the third column of the said Schedule opposite to each of such words, phrases and sentences respectively, shall be and the same, as so contained in such sections and provisos, are hereby repealed; and the several and respective words, phrases and sentences set forth in the fourth column of the said Schedule, opposite to each of such first mentioned words, phrases and sentences respectively, shall be and the same are hereby substituted for such first mentioned words, words,

words, phrases and sentences, each for each respectively; and henceforth the said substituted words, phrases and sentences, instead of those for which they are so substituted as aforesaid respectively, shall be and shall be deemed and taken to have been the words, phrases and sentences used in the several and respective sections and provisos of the said Act, in the third column of the said Schedule mentioned opposite to each of such words, phrases and sentences respectively, and in the parts of such sections and provisos therein particularly mentioned; and the said Act, and all other Acts referring to the same, shall be construed as if such substituted words, phrases and sentences had been there used, in such respective sections and provisos respectively, and in the parts thereof respectively in the said third column of the said Schedule mentioned as aforesaid, at the time of the passing of the said Act; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always nevertheless, Firstly, that nothing in this Act contained shall render void or otherwise affect in any way any thing heretofore done under the authority of the said Act, but the same, unless it shall have been made the subject of proceedings at law actually instituted before the passing of this Act, shall be and the same is hereby ratified and confirmed; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And provided also, Secondly, that notwithstanding the repeal of the parts and provisions of the said Act hereby repealed, all acts which might have been done, and all proceedings which might have been taken or prosecuted relating to any offences or neglects which may have been committed, or to any matters which shall have happened, or to any moneys which shall have become due, or to any fines or penalties which shall have been incurred before the day on which this Act shall come into operation, shall and may still be done or prosecuted, and the offences and omissions may be dealt with and punished, and the moneys may be recovered and dealt with, and the fines and penalties may be imposed and applied, as if the said parts and provisions of the said Act hereby repealed, continued in force.

V. And be it enacted, That in pleading, citing or otherwise referring to the said Act, it shall, in all cases whatsoever, be sufficient to use the expression, The Upper Canada Jurors' Act of one thousand eight hundred and fifty, or words of equivalent import; that in pleading, citing or otherwise referring to this Act, it shall, in all cases whatsoever, be sufficient to use the expression, The Upper Canada Jurors' Law Amendment Act of one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, or words of equivalent import; and that in pleading, citing or otherwise referring to the said Acts, and any other Acts that may be hereafter passed touching or concerning or in any wise relating to such Jurors, Juries or Inquests generally, it shall, in all cases whatsoever, be sufficient to use the expression, The Upper Canada Jurors' Acts, or words of equivalent import, which shall, in all cases, be understood to include and refer to such and so much of the said Acts as shall be then in force touching or concerning or in any wise relating to such Jurors, Juries and Inquests: Provided always nevertheless,

Proviso.

Short Titles by which the said Act and others relative to Jurors in Upper Canada, may be referred to.

Proviso.

CAP. LXVI.

An Act to amend an Act passed in the twelfth year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to improve the Law of Evidence in Upper Canada.

[30th August, 1851.]

Preamble.
12 Vict. 70, partly repealed.

WHEREAS by a Proviso contained in an Act passed in the twelfth year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to improve the Law of Evidence in Upper Canada, it is provided, That the said recited Act shall not render competent any party to any suit, action or proceeding, individually named in the record, or any Lessor of the Plaintiff or tenant of premises sought to be recovered in ejectment, or the landlord of any person in whose right any defendant in replevin may make cognizance, or any person in whose immediate or individual behalf any action may be brought or defended, either wholly or in part, or the husband or the wife of such persons respectively: And whereas it is desirable that in no case should there be any exclusion of any person from giving
