An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of Justices of the Peace, out of Sessions, in Upper Canada, with respect to Summary Convictions and Orders.

[Assented to 14th June, 1853.]

Preamble.

Where an information is laid or a complaint made before a Justice of the Peace that a party has committed an offence, such Justice may issue a Summons to such party.

WHEREAS it would conduce much to the improvement of the administration of justice within that part of this Province called Upper Canada, so far as respects Summary Convictions and Orders to be made by Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace therein, if the several Statutes and parts of Statutes relating to the duties of such Justices in respect of such Summary Convictions and Orders were consolidated, with such additions and alterations as may be deemed necessary, and that such duties should be clearly defined by positive enactment: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all cases where an Information shall be laid before one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for any Territorial Division in Upper Canada, that any person has committed or is suspected to have committed any offence or act within the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices of the Peace, for which he is liable by law upon a Summary Conviction for the same before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, to be imprisoned or fined or otherwise punished; and also in all cases where a complaint shall be made to any such Justice or Justices, upon which he or they have or shall have authority by law to make any Order for the payment of money money or otherwise, then in every such case it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace to issue his or their Summons (A), directed to such person, stating shortly the matter of such information or complaint, and requiring him to appear at a certain time and place, before the same Justice or Justices, or before such other Justice or Justices for the same Territorial Division as shall then be there; to answer to the said information or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; and every such Summons shall be served by a Constable or other Peace Officer, or other person to whom the same shall be delivered, upon the person to whom it is so directed, by delivering the same to the party personally, or by leaving the same with some person for him, at his last or most usual place of abode; and the Constable, Peace Officer, or person who shall serve the same in manner aforesaid, shall attend at the time and place, and before the Justices in the said Summons mentioned, to depose, if necessary, to the service of the said Summons; Provided always, that nothing herein mentioned shall oblige any Justice or Justices of the Peace to issue any such Summons in any case where the application for any Order of Justices is by law to be made ex parte: Provided also, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any Information, Complaint or Summons, for any alleged fact therein, in substance or in form, or for any variance between such Information, Complaint or Summons, and the evidence adduced on the part of the Informant or Complainant at the hearing of such information or complaint as hereinafter mentioned; but if any such variance shall appear to the Justice or Justices present and acting at such hearing to be such that the party so summoned and appearing has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, upon such terms as he or they shall think fit, to adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day.

How Summons to be served.

Proviso: Justices not obliged in certain cases to issue Summons.

In certain cases of variance, hearing may be adjourned.

II. III. And be it enacted, That every such Warrant to apprehend a Defendant, that he may answer to such information or complaint as aforesaid, shall be under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of the Justice or Justices issuing the same, and may be directed to all or any of the Constables or other Peace Officers of the Territorial Division within which the same is to be executed, or to such Constable and all other Constables within the Territorial Division within which the Justice or Justices issuing such Warrant hath or have jurisdiction, or generally to all Constables within such last mentioned Territorial Division; and it shall state shortly the matter of the information or complaint on which it is founded, and shall name or otherwise describe the person against whom it has been issued, and it shall order the Constable or other Peace Officer to whom it is directed, to apprehend the said Defendant, and to bring him before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, as the case may require, of the same Territorial Division, to answer to the said information or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; and that it shall not be necessary to make such Warrant returnable at any particular time, but the same may remain in full force until it shall be executed; and such Warrant may be executed by apprehending the Defendant at any place within the Territorial Division within which the Justices issuing the same shall have jurisdiction, or, in case of fresh pursuit, at any place in the next adjoining Territorial Division, within seven miles of the border of such first mentioned Territorial Division without having such Warrant backed as hereinafter mentioned; and in all cases in which such Warrant shall be directed to all Constables

XVII. And be it enacted, That in all cases of Summary Conviction or of Orders made by a Justice or Justices of the Peace, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices making the same, in his or their discretion, to award and order in and by such Conviction or Order that the Defendant shall pay to the Prosecutor or Complainant respectively such costs as to the said Justice or Justices shall seem reasonable in that behalf, and not inconsistent with the Fees established by law to be taken on proceedings had by and before Justices of the Peace under the Act passed in the Session held in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, An Act to establish an uniform rate of Fees to be received by Justices of the Peace in Upper Canada, and to repeal the Act of Upper Canada, passed in the fourth year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, chapter seventeen, or with the provisions of any other Act or Law in force in Upper Canada regulating fees or costs in proceedings before Justices of the Peace; and in cases where such Justice or Justices, instead of convicting or making an Order as aforesaid, shall dismiss the information or complaint, it shall be lawful for him or them in his or their discretion in and by his or their Order of Dismissal, to award and order that the Prosecutor or Complainant, respectively, shall pay to the Defendant such costs as to the said Justice or Justices shall seem reasonable and according to law as aforesaid;

Powers to Justice to issue Warrant of distress, in cases where a pecuniary penalty, &c. has been adjudged.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That where a conviction adjudges a pecuniary penalty or compensation to be paid, or where an Order requires the payment of a sum of money, and by the Statute authorizing such Conviction or Order, such penalty, compensation or sum of money is to be levied upon the goods and chattels of the Defendant, by distress and sale thereof, and also in cases where, by the Statute in that behalf, no mode of raising or levying such penalty, compensation or sum of money, or of enforcing the payment of the same, is stated or provided, it shall be lawful for the Justice or any one of the Justices making such Conviction or Order, or for any Justice of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, to issue his Warrant of Distress (N 1, 2,) for the purpose of levying the same, which said Warrant of Distress shall be in writing, under the Hand and Seal of the Justice making the same ; and if, after delivery of such Warrant of Distress to the Constable or Constables to whom the same shall have been directed to be executed, sufficient distress shall not be found within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Justice granting such Warrant, then upon proof alone being made upon oath of the hand-writing of the Justice granting such Warrant, before any Justice of any other Territorial Division, such Justice of such other Territorial Division shall thereupon make an endorsement (N 3,) on such Warrant, signed with his Hand, authorizing the execution of such Warrant within the limits of his jurisdiction, by virtue of which said Warrant and endorsement the penalty or sum aforsaid and costs, or so much thereof as may not have been before levied or paid, shall and may be levied by the person bringing such Warrant, or by the person or persons to whom such Warrant was originally directed, or by any Constable or other Peace Officer of such last mentioned Territorial Division, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the Defendant in such other Territorial Division : Provided always that whenever it shall appear to any Justice of the Peace to whom application shall be made for any such Warrant of Distress as aforsaid, that the issuing thereof would be ruinous to the Defendant and his family, or whenever it shall appear to the said Justice, by the confession of the Defendant or otherwise, that he hath no goods and chattels whereon to levy such distress, then and in every such case it shall be lawful

If sufficient distress be not found within limits of his jurisdiction, the Warrant may be endorsed by a Justice of another territorial division, and the penalty, &c. may be levied under such endorsement in such territorial division.

Proviso : When the issuing a Warrant would be ruinous to Defendant, or when there are no goods, Justice may lawful for such Justice, if he shall deem it fit, instead of issuing such Warrant of Distress, to commit such Defendant or other person to the Common Gaol, or Lock-up House within the Territorial Division within which such Justice or Justices shall then be acting, there to be imprisoned with or without hard labor, for such time and in such manner as by law such Defendant might be so committed, in case such Warrant of Distress had issued and no goods or chattels had been found whereon to levy such penalty or sum and costs aforesaid.

Justice, after issuing Warrant, may suffer Defendant to go at large or order him into custody, until Return be made, unless he gives security by Recognizance, and if he fail to re-appear, Justice may transmit Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace.

XX. And be it enacted, That if at the time and place appointed for the Return of any such Warrant of Distress, the Constable, who shall have had execution of the same, shall return (N 4,) that he could find no goods or chattels or no sufficient goods or chattels whereon he could levy the sum or sums therein mentioned, together with the costs of, or occasioned by, the levy of the same, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace before whom the same shall be returned, to issue his Warrant of Commitment (N 5,) under his Hand and Seal, directed to the same or any other Constable, reciting the Conviction or Order shortly, the issuing of the Warrant of Distress and the Return thereto, and requiring such Constable to convey such Defendant or other person to the Common Gaol or Lock-up House within the Territorial Division for which such Justice shall then be acting, and there to deliver him to the Keeper thereof, and requiring such Keeper to receive the Defendant into such Gaol or Lock-up House, and there to imprison him, or to imprison him and keep him to hard labor, Imprisonment for a subsequent offence, to commence at expiration of that for previous offence.

XXI. And be it enacted, That where a Justice or Justices of the Peace shall, upon such information or complaint as aforesaid, adjudge the Defendant to be imprisoned, and such Defendant shall then be in prison undergoing imprisonment upon conviction for any other offence, the Warrant of Conviction for such subsequent offence shall, in every case, be forthwith delivered to the Gaoler or other Officer to whom the same shall be directed, and it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices issuing the same, if he or they shall think fit, to award and order therein and thereby, that the imprisonment for such subsequent offence shall commence at the expiration of the imprisonment to which such Defendant shall have been previously adjudged or sentenced.

If information be dismissed, costs may be recovered by distress upon Prosecutor.

XXII. And be it enacted, That when any information or complaint shall be dismissed with costs as aforesaid, the sum which shall be awarded for costs in the Order for Dismissal, may be levied by distress (Q 1,) on the goods and chattels of the Prosecutor or Complainant in the manner aforesaid; and in default of distress or payment, such Prosecutor or Complainant may be committed (Q 2,) to the Common Gaol or other Prison or Lock-up House in manner aforesaid, for any time not exceeding one calendar month, unless such sum, and all costs and charges of the distress, and of the commitment and conveying of such Prosecutor or Complainant to prison (the amount thereof being ascertained and stated in such commitment), shall be sooner paid.
