An Act to confirm certain titles in the Township of Aldborough, and rectify difficulties which have arisen from an erroneous Survey.

[Assented to 14th June, 1853.]

WHEREAS in projecting the Survey of the Township of Aldborough, in the County of Elgin, it was intended that the western boundary thereof should abut immediately upon the eastern boundary of the lands originally reserved for the Moravian Indians, and now known as the Township of Orford, but that on carrying the Survey into effect, George Parrin Law, the Surveyor employed on the occasion, surveyed and established a line (which still bears his name) as the west boundary of Aldborough, and of Lots number one through the Broken Front, first and second Concessions, and situated at the distance of about fifty-five chains fifty links eastward of the eastern boundary of Orford, leaving an intermediate space between the Lots number one in Aldborough, and the said boundary of Orford, which space was in or about the year one thousand eight hundred and three, divided by Deputy-Surveyor William Hambly, into Lots which were marked A. and B., and have been granted by patent under that designation, which designation was maintained through to the rear of the sixth Concession ; And whereas by Surveys of examination conducted by Deputy-Surveyors Peter Carroll and Daniel Hanvey, it has been ascertained that generally the settlers have occupied

as though the Lots numbers one in the Broken Front and first and second Concessions abutted upon the actual eastern boundary of Orford, an impression induced by the description of the metes and bounds inserted in the patents first issued; and further, that in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth Concessions the settlers have occupied, allowing for Lots A. and B. intervening between the said line of Orford and the Lots numbers one, two, three, four, &c., and that in the Gore between the sixth and seventh Concessions, and likewise in the seventh Concession, the settlers have occupied, allowing for lettered Lots A., B., C. and D. intervening between the said boundary of Orford, and the numbered Lots numbers one, two, three, four, &c., and it appears advisable under the circumstances aforesaid, and with a view to avoid litigation, to declare and determine by Legislative enactment the designation and position of the numbered and lettered Lots in the said northern part of the Township of Aldborough: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in the Broken Front, the first Concession, and the second Concession of the western division of the said Township, the westernmost Lot adjoining the eastern boundary of the Township of Orford, in each of those Concessions respectively, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be Lot number one, and that the successive Lots extending eastward thereof shall be numbered continuously from number two to number seventeen, both inclusive.

How the lots shall be numbered in Broken Front and concessions 1 and 2, west division.

Numbers and letters in concessions 3, 4, 5 and 6 west division.

II. And be it enacted, That in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth Concessions of the said western division of the said Township adjoining the eastern boundary of Orford, the following arrangement shall be in like manner adopted, that is to say: commencing on the said boundary, and extending eastward—Lot A., Lot B., Lot one, otherwise C., Lot two, or D., and then continuously numbering from Lot number two to Lot number fifteen, both inclusive.

In the Gore between 6 and 7, and in concession 7 west division.

III. And be it enacted, That in the Gore between the sixth and seventh Concessions, and also in the seventh Concession of the said Township, the following arrangement shall in like manner be adopted, that is to say: commencing at the eastern boundary of Orford, with Lot A., Lot B., Lot C. and Lot D., and extending eastward, and numbering successively from number one to number thirteen, both inclusive, on the said Gore, and from number one to number twenty-four, inclusive, in the said seventh Concession.

IV.

IV. And be it enacted, That in Concession B., Concession A., and the first, second, third and fourth Concessions, in the eastern division of the said Township, the following arrangement shall in like manner be adopted, that is to say : the Lot number seventeen shall be recognized as the westernmost Lot in the said Concessions, the numbers shall then follow consecutively to Lot number twenty-three, inclusive, to which shall then succeed Lots lettered X., Lot number twenty-four, and then Lots Y and Z.

In concessions A and B, and 1, 2, 3 and 4, east division.

V. And be it enacted, That the line between the first and second Concessions of the said western division of the said Township, surveyed in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, by the aforesaid Deputy Surveyor Peter Carroll, under instructions from the Surveyor General of Upper Canada, shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be, the true and unalterable boundary between the said Concessions, any boundary line previously surveyed between them to the contrary notwithstanding.

True line between concessions 1 and 2, west division.

VI. And be it enacted, That within two years from the passing of this Act, it shall be the duty of the Municipal Council of the said Township of Aldborough, to cause permanent stone boundaries to be affixed by a duly licensed Surveyor, at the angles of all the Lots in that part of the said Township affected by the provisions of this Act, and it shall and may be lawful for the Municipal Council to defray the expense thereof by assessment to be rated and levied for that purpose.

Township Council to cause stone boundaries to be put up.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor in Council to compensate by granting an equivalent in lands, any person or persons who may be deprived of their lands or suffer loss, in consequence of the provisions contained in this Act for arranging the difficulties arising from irregular Surveys, or for securing the settlers in the lands they occupy ; any thing contained in the twenty-eighth Section of an Act passed in the Session of the Provincial Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's Reign, chaptered one hundred, intituled, An Act for the disposal of Public Lands, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Compensation for loss of land under this Act.

4 & 5 V. c. 100.

VIII. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to have the effect of conferring any title, or of perfecting any title now insufficient and imperfect, but its purpose shall be held to be to affix by authority of Parliament, such designation to the various Lots comprehended by this Act, as shall harmonize as far as practicable with the system under which the settlers have generally gone into occupation.

Act not to confer titles.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the County Register, County Treasurer and Township Officers of the Certain officers to the
