

CAP: CLXX.

An Act to incorporate certain persons under the name of the "Richelieu Company."

[Assented to 27th May, 1857.]

WHEREAS Pierre Edouard Leclerc, Louis Marchand, N. B. Desmarteau, Ephrem Hudon, Victor Hudon, Joseph Lévi, Jacques Félix Sincennes, Joseph Boulanget, and William MacNaughton, have by their humble petition represented that an association was formed in the City of Montreal, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, under the name and style of the "Richelieu Company," in and to which, with other persons, they had become Shareholders and subscribers, with the view of promoting the public interest, by providing the advantages of steam navigation for the inhabitants of the Districts of Montreal, Three-Rivers and Quebec, and of the intermediate ports, and to enable them to derive that benefit which the construction of the wharves and landing places already or hereafter to be constructed by them, along the route taken by their steamboats, offers to the inhabitants of this Province for the convenience of commerce and travellers generally, between Montreal, Three-Rivers, Quebec, and the intermediate ports and other places; that the capital of the said Company is limited to the sum of seventy-five thousand pounds currency, divided into three thousand shares of twenty-five pounds currency each; And whereas the object of the said Company is to facilitate and promote the inland navigation of the Province, and to enable them to avoid certain technical inconveniences, the said Company have prayed to be incorporated: Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows:

I. Pierre Edouard Leclerc, Louis Marchand, N. B. Desmarteau, Ephrem Hudon, Victor Hudon, Joseph Lévi, Jacques Félix Sincennes, Joseph Boulanget, William MacNaughton, and all other persons who may now be or hereafter become subscribers or Stockholders in the said Company, and all or any other person or persons, bodies politic and corporate, who as executors, administrators, successors or assigns, or by any other lawful title, may hold any part, share, or interest in the Capital Stock of the said Company, and their executors, administrators successors and assigns, shall be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, for the purposes mentioned in the preamble of this Act, under the name and style of the "Richelieu Company," and shall by that name have perpetual succession and a Common Seal, and by the same name be capable of suing and being sued in all Courts of Justice in this Province. The said Company may make, establish, and put into execution, alter or repeal, all By-laws, rules, ordinances and regulations, the same not being contrary to the Laws of this

An Act to incorporate certain persons under the name of the "De Salaberry Navigation Company of Montreal."

[Assented to 10th June, 1857.]

WHEREAS L. Renaud, J. B. Renaud, C. Fitzpatrick, J. Keith, J. L. Cassidy, L. Marchand and D. S. Ramsay, have by their petition represented, that an association was formed in January last, in the City of Montreal, under the name and style of the "De Salaberry Navigation Company of Montreal," in and to which they with other persons are stockholders and subscribers, with a view of promoting the public interest, by providing for the inhabitants of the shores of the St. Lawrence between Cornwall, Beauharnois and Montreal, and the intermediate ports, and for the convenience of commerce and travellers generally, the advantage of steam navigation, and for the use of the wharves and landing places now or hereafter to be constructed by them along the route taken by their steamboats; and for the purposes aforesaid the said Company now have in course of construction a steamboat to be called the "Salaberry," and which will be ready for service at the opening of the approaching season of navigation between the ports hereinbefore mentioned; that the capital of the said Company is at present four thousand five hundred pounds currency, divided into three hundred and sixty shares, of twelve pounds ten shillings currency each, with power to increase the same to the sum of fifteen thousand pounds currency, in shares of the same amount, for the purchase or construction of new steamboats, and for the erection of such wharves and landing places as the said Company may deem requisite, and for the greater accommodation of the inhabitants of the ports or places that may be touched at by the boats of the said Company; And whereas the said Company might be placed in a position obliging them to sue or be sued in the transaction of their business; And whereas the said Company has for its object the facilitating and promotion of the navigation of this Province, and with the view of attaining their purpose with greater facility, the said Company have prayed to be incorporated: Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows:
