

The Provincial Statutes of Canada, passed in the year 1841. Kingston: Stewart Derbishire & George Desbarats, 1841.

4 & 5 Victoria – Chapter 5

An Act to facilitate the Despatch of Business in the Court of Queen’s Bench of Upper Canada.
17th August, 1841.

Whereas it would facilitate the despatch of business in the Court of Queen’s Bench of Upper Canada, if the said Court were enabled to sit in Banc out of Term, for the purposes of giving Judgment and making Rules and Orders in matters which have been moved and argued before it: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Court of Queen’s Bench of Upper Canada, to sit in Banc on the Tuesday and Wednesday of the second week after the end of each Term, for the purposes only of giving Judgment, and of making Rules and Orders in matters which have been moved and argued in the said Court, and that all Judgments to be pronounced, and all Rules and Orders to be made, under the authority of this Act, shall have the same effect to all intents and purposes as if they had been pronounced or made in Term time.
