

The Provincial Statutes of Canada, passed in the year 1841. Kingston: Stewart Derbishire & George Desbarats, 1841.

4 & 5 Victoria – Chapter 71

An Act to authorize the payment of a certain sum of money to Christopher Leggo. 18th September, 1841.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Whereas it is expedient that Christopher Leggo, of the Town of Brockville, should be indemnified for certain losses, by him sustained from causes which render it just, that such losses should be borne by the public; May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the limited Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person administering the Government, by warrant under his hand, to authorize the payment of a sum not exceeding two hundred and forty six pounds to the said Christopher Leggo out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of this Province, to indemnify the said Christopher Leggo for the losses aforesaid.

II. And be it enacted, that the due application of all monies expended under the authority of this Act, shall be accounted for to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, in such manner and form as Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors shall direct; and that an account of all such monies shall be laid before the Legislative Assembly of this Province within fifteen days after the opening of the then next Session thereof.
