

The Provincial Statutes of Canada, passed in the year 1842. Kingston: Stewart Derbishire & George Desbarats, 1842.

6 Victoria – Chapter 16

An Act to restore, for purposes relative to the Election of Members of the Legislative Assembly, the ancient boundaries and limits of the Cities of Quebec and Montreal. 12th October, 1842.

Whereas in the Act for re-uniting the late Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, it is among other things in effect enacted, that for the purpose of electing their several Representatives to the Legislative Assembly of this Province, certain Cities shall be deemed to be bounded and limited in such manner as the Governor of Canada, by Letters Patent to be issued in the manner and form there mentioned, shall set forth and describe, until such boundaries and limits shall be altered by any Act of the Parliament of this Province to be passed in the manner prescribed by the Act first above mentioned; And whereas His Excellency the Right Honorable Charles Baron Sydenham, then Governor of this Province, did by Letters Patent issued under the provisions aforesaid, and bearing date the fourth day of March, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty one, direct that the respective Cities of Quebec and Montreal should for the purposes aforesaid, be bounded and limited in the manner in the said Letters Patent set forth and described; And whereas it is expedient to alter the limits and bounds so assigned to the said Cities and to restore for the purposes aforesaid, the ancient boundaries and limits thereof as they existed for like purposes before the passing of the Act first above cited, and as they now respectively exist for Municipal purposes; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the said Cities of Quebec and Montreal shall for the purpose of electing their respective Representatives to the Legislative Assembly of this Province, at any Election to be held after the passing of this Act, be deemed to be bounded and limited in the manner set forth and described in the Proclamation of His Excellency Alured Clarke, Esquire, then Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Lower Canada, issued under the Great Seal of the said Province, and bearing date the seventh day of May, in the year of Our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety two; any thing in the Letters Patent mentioned in the Preamble to this Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.
