

The Provincial Statutes of Canada, passed in the year 1842. Kingston: Stewart Derbishire & George Desbarats, 1842.

6 Victoria – Chapter 30

An Act to appropriate a certain sum to enable Her Majesty to remunerate Doctor Thomas Rolph, for his past services as Emigration Agent. 12th October, 1842.

Most Gracious Sovereign:

Whereas His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir Charles Bagot, Governor General of this Province, hath, by His Message bearing date the twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, recommended that a Sum, not exceeding that hereinafter mentioned, be appropriated to remunerate Doctor Thomas Rolph for his past services as Emigration Agent in the United Kingdom, on behalf of the Government of Canada, and it is expedient to make such appropriation: May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled, "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that from and out of any unappropriated monies forming part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of this Province, there may be paid to the said Doctor Thomas Rolph, a Sum not exceeding five hundred and fifty-five pounds eleven shillings and one penny, Currency, as a remuneration for his services aforesaid.

II. And be it enacted, that the due application of the monies hereby appropriated shall be accounted for to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and successors, through the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors shall direct.
