

The Provincial Statutes of Canada, passed in the year 1842. Kingston: Stewart Derbishire & George Desbarats, 1842.

6 Victoria – Chapter 9

An Act to grant certain sums to Her Majesty, for defraying certain indispensable expenses of the Civil Government, during the periods therein mentioned. 12th October, 1842.

Most Gracious Sovereign:

Whereas it appears by Messages from His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir Charles Bagot, Governor General of this Province, bearing date respectively, the twenty third day of September, and the first day of October, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, that certain sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the sums hereinafter mentioned, will be required to defray certain indispensable expenses of the Civil Government not otherwise provided for, and it is expedient to make provision accordingly; May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled in virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that from and out of any unappropriated Monies, forming part of the consolidated Revenue Fund of this Province, there may be paid and applied for the purpose of defraying the necessary and indispensable expenses of the Civil Government of this Province, for the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, not otherwise provided for, such sums as shall not in the whole exceed the sum of eighty three thousand, three hundred and three pounds, six shillings and eight pence currency, and for the purpose of defraying the necessary and indispensable expenses of the Civil Government of this Province, from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, to the thirty-first day of March, in the same year, not otherwise provided for, such sums as shall not in the whole exceed the sum of twenty seven thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven pounds, fifteen shillings and six pence currency, of the application of all which sums accounts shall be rendered, in the manner hereinafter provided.

II. And be it enacted, that an account in detail of the several sums paid and applied under the authority of this Act, shall be laid before both Houses of the Provincial Legislature, within fifteen days after the opening of the Session next after the expenditure of such sums respectively.

III. And be it enacted, that the due application of all monies expended under the authority of this Act, shall be accounted for to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, in such manner and form as Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall direct.
