The Provincial Statutes of Canada, passed in the year 1843. Kingston: Stewart Derbishire & George Desbarats, 1843.

7 Victoria – Chapter 28

An Act to detach the Township of Chatham Gore, otherwise called the Gore of Chatham, from the County of Terrebonne, and to annex it to the County of the Two Mountains. 9th December, 1843.

Whereas; by the terms of the Act of the Legislature of Lower Canada, passed in the ninth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and intituled, An Act to make a more convenient subdivision of the Province into Counties, for the purpose of effecting a more equal representation thereof in the Assembly than heretofore, the tract of land which now forms the Township of Chatham Gore, otherwise called the Gore of Chatham, lying in the rear of the Seigniory [Seigneury] of Argenteuil, in the District of Montreal, was included in the County of Terrebonne; And whereas, from the position of the said Township, it would be more advantageous to the Inhabitants thereof, that it should form part of the County of the Two Mountains; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act, the said Township of Chatham Gore, otherwise called the Gore of Chatham, shall be and is hereby detached from the said County of Terrebonne, and shall be included in and make part of the said County of the Two Mountains, to and for all intents and purposes whatsoever any thing in the Act herein first above cited to the contrary notwithstanding.
