

The Provincial Statutes of Canada, passed in the year 1843. Kingston: Stewart Derbshire & George Desbarats, 1843.

7 Victoria – Chapter 58

An Act to authorize the Court of Queen’s Bench and the High Court of Chancery, at their discretion, to admit Samuel Bealey Harrison to practise as an Attorney and Solicitor thereof, respectively. 9th December, 1843.

Whereas the Honorable Samuel Bealey Harrison, of the Town of Kingston, Barrister at Law, hath by his Petition represented, that he was called to the Bar by the Honorable the Society of the Middle Temple, in England, and hath been duly admitted as a Barrister in all the Courts of Upper Canada, and the said Petitioner hath prayed that the High Court of Chancery in this Province, and the Court of Queen’s Bench for Upper Canada, may be authorized in their discretion to admit him to practise as a Solicitor and as an Attorney in the said Courts, respectively; And whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said Petition; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the High Court of Chancery in this Province, in its discretion, to admit the said Samuel Bealey Harrison to practise as a Solicitor in the said Court, and for the Court of Queen’s Bench for Upper Canada, in its discretion, to admit him as an Attorney of the said last named Court; any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.
