

The Provincial Statutes of Canada, passed in the year 1843. Kingston: Stewart Derbshire & George Desbarats, 1843.

7 Victoria – Chapter 60

An Act to amend the Charter of the Cataraqui Bridge Company. 9th December, 1843.

Whereas a certain Act was passed by the Legislature of the late Province of Upper Canada, in the eighth year of the Reign of His late Majesty, King George the Fourth, and intituled, An Act to incorporate certain persons therein mentioned, under the style and title of The Cataraqui Bridge Company; And whereas the said Act of Incorporation is in several respects incomplete, and the said Bridge being nearly worn out, and a new one about to be erected, it is expedient to alter and amend certain Sections of the said Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the Toll-keeper, or the person appointed to receive the Tolls at the said Cataraqui Bridge, shall hereafter open the Draw-bridge, which by the third section of the said Act, the said Company are bound to construct for all vessels demanding passage through the same, and for every neglect or refusal, the said Toll-keeper or person appointed to receive the Tolls, shall forfeit and pay to the party so detained, the sum of twenty live shillings, currency.

II. And be it enacted, that so much of the tenth section of the said Act, as requires that notices for annual meetings be advertised in all the several newspapers in the Town of Kingston, shall be and is hereby repealed, and that henceforward notice in the Canada Gazette, or one other newspaper, of the said town, shall be sufficient for calling any public meeting of the said Cataraqui Bridge Company.

III. And be it enacted, that so much of the twenty-fourth section of the said Act, as relates to the levying of fines for offences against the said Act, and refers the Magistrate in such cases for authority to the fifth section thereof, shall be and is hereby repealed; and that henceforward, the provisions set forth in the sixth section of the said Act, shall be the authority under which the Magistrate shall act in all manner of things relating to such offences.
