

Provincial Statues of Canada, passed in the year 1845. Montreal: Stewart Derbishire & George Desbarats, 1845.

8 Victoria – Chapter 23

An Act to repeal a certain part of an Act of Upper Canada relating to Macadamized Roads, and to revive, with reference to such Roads, part of a certain other Act relative to Public Highways and Roads in Upper Canada. (10th February, 1845.)

Whereas divers inhabitants of that part of this Province called Upper Canada, residing within half a mile of the different Macadamized Roads referred to in the Act of the Legislature of Upper Canada, passed in the third year of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, "An Act, to repeal, alter and amend the Laws now in force for the Regulation of the several Macadamized Roads in this Province," have suffered great inconvenience from being compelled to commute their Statute labour upon the said Macadamized Roads; And whereas in many cases the Roads intersecting the said Macadamized Roads, Concession Roads, and other Roads, have been neglected, and no Statute labour has since the passing of the said Act, been performed thereon; And whereas it is expedient to give relief to parties suffering from the unequal operation of the said obligation to commute their Statute labour: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the forty-ninth section of the said Act be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That the provision of the said Act which repeals all other Acts contrary to or inconsistent therewith, shall not hereafter extend to a certain Act of the Legislature of Upper Canada, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act to repeal part of and amend the Laws now in force for laying out, amending, and keeping in repair the Public Highways and Roads in this Province," but the said last mentioned Act shall be revived and continued and shall be in force, with regard to the persons who without this Act would have been bound to commute their Statute labour as aforesaid; And the said Statute labour shall hereafter be performed by such persons, on such Roads other than the said Macadamized Roads as shall be appointed by the proper Road Officers within the several local divisions, respectively.
