

Provincial Statutes of Canada, passed in the year 1845. Montreal: Stewart Derbishire & George Desbarats, 1845.

8 Victoria – Chapter 75

An Act to correct and amend an Act passed in the Session held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to appropriate certain sums of money for Public Improvements in this Province, and for other purposes therein mentioned." (29th March, 1845.)

Whereas by an Act passed in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to appropriate certain sums of money for Public Improvements in this Province, and for other purposes therein mentioned," the sum of thirty thousand pounds was intended to be appropriated for improving and completing the main Northern Roads from Lake Ontario, at Toronto, to Lake Huron, and certain roads in the District of Simcoe, which said District of Simcoe is in the said Act erroneously called the District of Barrie; And whereas it is necessary to amend so much of the said Act as relates to the appropriation of the said sum of thirty thousand pounds: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled, "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said sum of thirty thousand pounds, or so much thereof as may be now unexpended, shall be expended in improving and completing the main Northern Road from Lake Ontario, at Toronto, to Lake Huron, continuing and perfecting the same from the termination of the portion already macadamised by the Home District, establishing toll bars thereon, and improving sundry parts thence to Penetanguishene, and improving the Cold Water Portage; and also in improving the road from Bond Head to Barrie, by covering the long causeway with earth or gravel, and in other improvements on that line of road, and in draining, forming and grading that part of the Penetanguishene Road from Bradford, through West Gwillimbury and Innisfil, to Barrie in the District of Simcoe, in such manner as to the Board of Works may seem advisable.

II. And be it enacted, That so much of the first section of the Act above in part recited as relates to the appropriation and expenditure of the sum of thirty thousand pounds for improving the roads in the District of Simcoe, therein called the District of Barrie, and in the Home District, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

III. And be it enacted, That the monies to be expended under this Act, shall be expended under the direction of the Board of Works, and the due application thereof accounted for in the same manner as that of other monies expended under the direction of the said Board.
