10 & 11 Victoria – Chapter 110

An Act to authorize the Courts of Queen's Bench and of Chancery, in their discretion, to admit Edward Gilman to practise as an Attorney and Solicitor therein. 28th July, 1847.

Whereas Edward Gilman, of the City of Kingston, hath, by his Petition, set forth that he, the said Edward Gilman, hath been duly admitted as an Attorney and Solicitor in Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law and Equity at Westminster, and hath produced his admissions therein: And whereas the said Edward Gilman, by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal of Canada, hath since filled a Judicial office in this Province for upwards of four years, and is now desirous to be admitted to practise the Law as an Attorney and Solicitor; And whereas it is reasonable, under the circumstances of the case, that the Courts of Law and Equity in Upper Canada should be authorized, in their discretion, to admit the said Edward Gilman to practise as an Attorney and Solicitor, and it is therefore expedient to grant the prayer of his petition: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and maybe lawful for the Court of Queen's Bench in and for that part of this Province which formerly constituted the Province of Upper Canada, in its discretion, to admit the said Edward Gilman as an Attorney of that Court, and that it shall also be lawful for the Court of Chancery in that part of this Province last aforesaid, in its discretion, to admit him to practise as a Solicitor in the Court of Chancery; any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.
