Stewart Derbishire & George Desbarats, 1847.

10 & 11 Victoria – Chapter 51

An Act to provide for the removal of the Registry Office of the County of Bellechasse, from the place where it is now kept, to the Parish of St. Michel. 28th July, 1847.

Whereas the Inhabitants of certain parts of the County of Bellechasse, are under great disadvantage by reason of the great distance at which they are from the present Registry Office for the County, which is now kept in the Parish of St. Gervais, instead of being kept as it would more properly be, in the Parish of St. Michel, the central Parish of the said County: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Person administering the Government of this Province for the time being, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, to order the removal of the Registry Office of the said County of Bellechasse from the place where it is now kept to the Parish of St. Michel, the most central Parish of the said County.
