

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1849. Montreal: Stewart Derbyshire & George Desbarats, 1849.

12 Victoria – Chapter 130

An Act to provide for the Removal of the Registry Office of the County of L'Islet, from the place where it is now kept, to the Parish of L'Islet. 25th April, 1849.

Whereas the Registry Office of the County of L'Islet was fixed in the Parish of St. Thomas, at the Eastern extremity of the said County, in order that it might be nearer to the County of Bellechasse, for which it was also intended to be the Registry Office; And whereas a Registry Office hath since been established in the said County of Bellechasse, and it hath become necessary to change the site of the Registry Office of the County of L'Islet, and to place it in a position more central for the said County: And whereas the Parish of L'Islet, in the said County, is the most central and convenient place for the majority of the Inhabitants: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province for the time being, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, to order the Removal of the Registry Office of the said County of L'Islet from the place where it is now kept to the said Parish of L'Islet.
