

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1849. Montreal: Stewart Derbshire & George Desbarats, 1849.

12 Victoria – Chapter 2

An Act to amend and to render permanent as amended the Act for the Management of the Customs. 25th April, 1849.

Whereas it is expedient to amend and to render permanent as amended the Act passed in the eighth year of Her Majesty's' Reign, and intituled, An Act to provide for the Management of the Customs and of matters relative to the collection of the Provincial Revenue: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower-Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That for and notwithstanding any thing in the third section or in any other part of the Act cited in the Preamble to this Act, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to grant to the Collectors of Customs at the ports of Quebec and Montreal, respectively, such salary not exceeding seven hundred and fifty pounds currency per annum, as to the said Governor in Council shall seem reasonable and necessary; and that the said Act as hereby amended shall be and is hereby made permanent, and shall remain in force until repealed by competent authority; anything therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.
