

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1849. Montreal: Stewart Derbyshire & George Desbarats, 1849.

12 Victoria – Chapter 43

An Act to remove all doubts as to the right of suing and defending Causes in formâ pauperis before the Courts of Law in Lower-Canada. 30th May, 1849.

Whereas doubts having arisen, whether the Courts of Law in Lower-Canada, and the several Justices thereof, are empowered to allow parties to sue and defend in formâ pauperis, as hath been practised heretofore in the said Courts; And whereas it is unjust to refuse access to the Courts to suitors whose pecuniary means are insufficient to enable them to pay, in the first instance, the ordinary fees and charges of the officers of the said Courts: Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower-Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the authority of the same, That the said Courts, and each of the Justices thereof, are and shall be empowered and authorized to permit parties to sue and defend causes in formâ pauperis, as hath been heretofore practised, whenever they shall be satisfied by affidavit that such parties, having a good cause of action or a good defence, are unable to establish the same in the ordinary course of law, for want of the necessary means to defray the fees and charges of the several officers of the said Courts whose services are required in the conduct of causes before such Courts.

II. And be it declared and enacted, That the said Courts have and shall have full power and authority, either by interlocutory or by final judgment, to dispauper parties to whom the said privilege of suing in formâ pauperis shall have been allowed, whenever law and justice shall require them to be so dispaupered.
