

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1849. Montreal: Stewart Derbyshire & George Desbarats, 1849.

12 Victoria – Chapter 65

An Act to increase, the Salary of the Reporter of the Court of Chancery in Upper-Canada. 30th May, 1849.

Whereas by an Act passed in the eighth year of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to authorize the appointment of a Reporter in the Court of Chancery, the Law Society of Upper-Canada is empowered to appoint a Reporter to the said Court of Chancery, with a Salary not to exceed one hundred pounds per annum; And whereas it is expedient to assign to the Reporter of the Court of Chancery the same Salary as is enjoyed by the Reporter of the Court of Queen's Bench, and for that purpose to amend so much of the fourth clause of the above recited Act as limits the Salary of the Reporter of the Court of Chancery to the sum of one hundred pounds: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower-Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the said Society of Upper-Canada, to assign to the Reporter of the Court of Chancery the same Salary as is now or may hereafter be enjoyed by the Reporter of the Court of Queen's Bench in Upper-Canada; any thing in the said recited Act notwithstanding.
