12 Victoria – Chapter 95

Act to define the Boundary between the Districts of Bathurst and Johnstown. 25th April, 1849.

Whereas doubts have arisen as to the precise boundary between the Bathurst and Johnstown Districts, so that it is uncertain in which District certain property is situate; and it is expedient and necessary to remove such doubts, and to define the said boundary: Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the authority of the same, That the middle of the Rideau Lake and River, in front of the Townships of North Burgess, North Elmsley, and Montague, has been and is the boundary line between the said District of Bathurst and the said District of Johnstown: Provided always, that wherever the line drawn along the middle of the said Lake and River, within the limits aforesaid, passes over any island, such island shall be deemed to have been and is hereby declared to be in and District of Bathurst if the greater part thereof lies north of the said line, and the District of Johnstown if the greater part thereof lies south of the said line.
