III. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful as soon as one thousand five hundred, out of the aforesaid two thousand shares, shall have been taken up, or Thirty-seven thousand five hundred pounds out of the aforesaid Capital Stock of Fifty thousand pounds, shall have been subscribed, for the Shareholders or Subscribers to proceed to the election by ballot of twelve Directors, at such time and place as the majority of such Subscribers shall appoint, giving fifteen days' notice thereof in the Canada Gazette, and in one newspaper at least in each County or Union of Counties where subscription has been made, which Directors shall be subjects of Her Majesty and Stockholders at the time of their election, and during their continuance in office, to the amount of twenty shares, and shall have power to choose from among themselves a President and Vice-President, and the said Directors shall thereupon, at their first meeting thereafter, divide themselves by lot into three classes of four each, who shall go out of office in rotation as hereinafter provided for.

IV. And be it enacted, That each Stockholder shall be entitled to a number of votes proportioned to the number of shares which he or she shall have held in his or her own name at least three months prior to the time of voting, according to the following ratios, that is to say, at the rate of one vote for each share not exceeding four, five votes for six shares, six votes for eight shares, seven votes for ten shares, and one vote for every five shares above ten; and that all votes given at any meeting, may be either personally or by proxy, the holders of such proxies being Stockholders, authorized by writing under the hands of the Stockholders nominating such proxy, and every proposition at any such meeting shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the parties present, including proxies: Provided always, that the authority to any such proxy shall bear date within six months of the time of meeting at which it is produced: And provided also, that no person or co-partnership, or body politic, shall be entitled to more than fifteen votes at any such meeting on any one proposition.

V. And be it enacted, That the persons chosen Directors of the said Corporation by the Stockholders aforesaid, shall hold their offices until the second Monday in February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, or until the election hereinafter provided for takes place.

VI. And be it enacted, That a general meeting of the Stockholders of the said Corporation, shall be holden in the City of Kingston, at the place of business of the said Corporation, on the second Monday in the month of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and thereafter on the same day in each and every year, and that at such meeting, the four Directors whose names stand first on the roll or list of Directors, shall be held to vacate their seats, and the Stockholders present at such meeting, either in person or by proxy, shall proceed to elect by ballot four Directors to serve as Directors for the ensuing three years, who shall upon election be placed at the bottom of the roll of Directors: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to render the retiring Directors ineligible to re-election.

VII. And be it enacted, That if any Director of the said Corporation, die, resign or become disqualified or incompetent to act as a Director, or cease to be a Director by any other cause than that of going out of office by rotation as aforesaid, the remaining Directors, if they think proper so to do, may elect in his place any Stockholder duly qualified to be a Director, and the Stockholder so elected to fill up any such vacancy, shall continue in office until the first yearly meeting after such vacancy, and the Stockholders then present shall elect a new Director, who shall hold office for the same period as the Director would have done, whose death, resignation or disqualification caused the vacancy.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the Corporation hereby created shall have power and authority to make and effect Contracts of Insurance, with any person or persons, body politic or corporate against loss or damage by fire to any houses, stores or other buildings, shipping and vessels of all kinds, and any goods, chattels or personal property whatsoever; and also against losses or damage of or to vessels, boats or other craft, either sea going or navigating upon the lakes or rivers of the Province, and against any loss or damage of or to the cargoes or property conveyed in or upon any such vessels, boats or other craft, or to timber or other property of every description conveyed in any manner upon the said waters, and generally to do all matters and things relating to such objects; and all policies, checks and all other instruments shall be subscribed by the President, or in his absence by the Vice-President, or in case of his absence, by any three of the Directors for the time being, and countersigned by the Secretary.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person or persons to subscribe for such or so many shares as he, she or they think fit, not however exceeding, during the first month after Subscription Books are opened, eighty shares, and that ten per centum be ready as a deposit to be called for by the Directors as soon as they may deem expedient, and the remainder shall be payable in such instalments as a majority of the Directors may determine upon: Provided always, that no instalments shall exceed five per centum upon the Capital Stock in any period of three months, nor be called for, nor become payable in less than thirty days after public notice shall have been given in one newspaper published in the City of Kingston, and the Canada Gazette, and by circular addressed to each Stockholder, at his, her or their last known residence; if any Stockholder or Stockholders as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to pay to the said Directors the instalments due upon any share or shares held by him, her or them at the time required so to do, such Stockholder or Stockholders as aforesaid, shall forfeit such share or shares as aforesaid, together with the amount previously paid thereon, and such forfeited share or shares may be sold at a public sale by the Directors, after such notice as they may direct, and the moneys arising therefrom shall be applied for the purposes of this Act; Provided always, that in case the money produced by any sale of shares be more than sufficient to pay all arrears and interest, together with the expense of such sale, the surplus of such money shall be paid on demand to the owner, and no more shares shall be sold than what shall be deemed necessary to pay such arrears, interest and expenses.

X. And be it enacted, That if payment of such arrears of calls, interest and expenses be made before any share so forfeited and vested in the Company shall have been sold, such share shall revert to the party to whom the same belonged before such forfeiture, as if such calls had been duly paid; and in all actions or suits for the recovery of such arrears or calls, it shall be sufficient for the said Company to allege that the defendant, being owner of such shares, is indebted to the said Company in such sums of money as the calls in arrear amount to, for such and so many shares, whereby an action hath accrued to the Company by virtue of this Act, and on the trial it shall only be necessary to prove that the defendant was owner of some shares in the Company, that such calls were in fact made, that notice was given as directed by this Act, and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such calls, nor any other matter whatsoever.

XI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if the whole number of shares shall not be subscribed for within one month after the said Books of Subscription shall be opened, then it shall be lawful for any former Subscriber or Subscribers to increase his, her or their subscription; And provided further, that if the total amount of subscriptions, within the period aforesaid, shall exceed the Capital Stock limited by this Act to fifty thousand pounds, then and in such case, the shares of each Subscriber or Subscribers above ten shares, shall, as nearly as may be, be proportionably reduced until the total number of shares be brought down to the limits aforesaid; And provided nevertheless, that the said limitation in respect to persons subscribing to the said Capital Stock, shall not extend or be construed to extend to prevent the acquisition of a greater number of shares by purchase after the said Corporation shall have commenced its operations.

XII. And be it enacted, That the said Directors shall meet together at least once a week, at such time and place as may be designated in the By-laws, for the purpose of transacting the business of the Company, at which meeting four or more of the Directors aforesaid shall be a quorum, for the purpose of transacting and managing the details of business and affairs of the said Corporation, and all questions before them shall be decided by a majority of votes, each Director to have one vote; and in case of an equality of votes, the President, Vice-President or presiding Director, shall give the casting vote over and above his proper vote as a Director, and that at such weekly meetings of the Directors, the President or Vice-President, or in their absence the Director appointed by a majority of the Directors present, shall preside.

XIII. And be it enacted, That at all meetings of the Stockholders, the President or Vice-President, or in their absence a Director chosen by the Stockholders shall preside, who in case of an equality of votes, shall give the casting vote over and above his proper vote.

XIV. And be it enacted, That any number of the Directors of the said Corporation being a majority of the said Directors, shall have full power and authority to make, prescribe and alter such By-laws, Rules, Regulations and Ordinances as shall appear to them proper and needful, touching the well ordering of the Corporation, the management and disposition of its stock, property, estate and effects; and also to call in any instalment or instalments of the Capital Stock of the said Corporation, at such time and season as they shall think fit, giving due notice thereof, according to the ninth section of this Act; also to declare and cause to be paid or distributed to the respective Stockholders, any dividend or dividends or profits, at such times and seasons as they shall think proper, or add the same to the paid up portion of the Capital Stock; also to appoint a Secretary, and such other persons as to them may appear necessary for carrying on the business of the said Corporation, with such salary and allowances to each as they may think meet and advisable;

Provided always, that for the purposes in this section of this Act mentioned, a majority of the Directors at least shall be present and assenting; And provided further, that all such By-laws, Rules, Regulations and Ordinances made by the Directors as aforesaid, shall be subject to the control of the Stockholders, at their annual meeting, but not so as to render invalid any act done by the Directors prior to any resolution passed at such general meeting.

XV. And be it enacted, That the said Corporation shall be in law capable of acquiring, by purchase, lease, mortgage or otherwise, and of holding, absolutely or conditionally, any lands, tenements, real or immoveable estate, and the same to sell, alienate, let, release, transfer and dispose of as to them shall seem expedient; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be considered as permission to hold any real estate beyond what may be necessary for the said Corporation to hold for its own immediate accommodation, in relation to the convenient transaction of its business, or such as shall have been bonâ fide mortgaged to it by way of security, or conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings, or purchased at sales upon judgments which shall have been obtained for such debts; And provided also, that it shall not be lawful for the said Corporation to deal or use or employ any part of the stock, funds or moneys thereof, in buying or selling any goods, wares or merchandize, or in any banking operations whatsoever, but it shall nevertheless be lawful for the said Corporation to purchase and hold, for the purpose of investing therein any part of the said funds or money, any of the Public Securities of this Province, the Stocks of any of the Banks or other Chartered Companies, and the bonds and debentures of any of the Incorporated Cities or Towns, or Municipal Districts, and also to sell and transfer the same, and also to make loans upon or purchase bonds, mortgages and other securities, and the same to call in, sell, and re-loan, as occasion may render expedient; And provided further, that the said Corporation shall be bound to sell or dispose of, any real estate so purchased or conveyed to it as aforesaid, (except such as may be necessary as aforesaid, for the convenient transaction of its business.) within seven years after acquiring the same.

XVI. And be it enacted, That no transferred share shall entitle the person to whom it is transferred to a vote, until the expiration of ninety days after such transfer.

XVII. And be it enacted, That no transfer of any share of the said Corporation shall be valid until entered in the books of the Corporation, according to such form as the Directors may, from time to-time, determine, and that until the whole of the Capital Stock of the said Corporation is paid up, it shall be necessary to obtain the consent of the Directors to such transfer being made; provided always, that no Stockholder indebted to the said Corporation shall be permitted to make a transfer, or receive a dividend, until such debt is paid, or secured to be paid, to the satisfaction of the Directors.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That during the hours of business, every Stockholder of the said Corporation shall have power to ask and receive from the President or Secretary, the names of all the Stockholders of the said Corporation.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if at any time it shall happen that an election of Directors should not be made on the several days hereinbefore provided for their election, the said Corporation shall not for that cause be deemed to be dissolved; and it shall and may be lawful on any other day to hold and make an election of Directors in such manner as may be directed and required by the By-laws of the said Corporation.
