

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of United Canada, passed in the year 1851. York: Stewart Derbyshire and George Desbarts, 1851.

14 & 15 Victoria – Chapter 141

An Act to amend the Act incorporating the Trustees of the Toronto Hospital. 30th August, 1851.

Whereas in and by an Act passed by the Parliament of this Province, in the Session thereof held in the tenth and eleventh years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to incorporate the Trustees of the Toronto Hospital, it is amongst other things in effect enacted, That the two Senior Professors of any School of Medicine, to be thereafter established in the City of Toronto, and in default of or until the establishment of such School, any such medical men resident in the said City as should be nominated and appointed as vacancies should occur, by the Common Council of the said City, in Common Council assembled, at any meeting of such Common Council, should be Members of the Corporation created by the said Act; And whereas it is desirable to repeal the aforesaid provision of the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Professor of any School of Medicine, established or to be established in the said City of Toronto, shall be ex officio a Member of the said Corporation of the Trustees of the Toronto Hospital; but the said Common Council shall, have power from time to time to nominate and appoint any two persons resident in the said City of Toronto to be Trustees of the said Toronto Hospital; and such two Trustees, and the Trustees to be appointed by the Government, as well as the Trustees at present constituting the said Corporation, shall be removable at pleasure by the -power appointing them; and any Trustees from time to time appointed under the said recited Act and this Act, shall hereafter compose the said Corporation: Provided always, that subject to such removal as aforesaid, the Trustees at present lawfully composing the said Corporation shall continue to compose the same.
