And be it enacted, That upon every visit of the Visitors to any licensed house, there shall be laid before such Visitors by the proprietor or Superintendent of such house, a list of all the patients then in such house, (distinguishing males from females, and specifying such as are deemed curable,) and also the several Books by this Act required to be kept by the proprietor or Superintendent, and by the Medical Attendant of a licensed house, and also all Orders and Certificates relating to patients admitted since the last visitation of the Visitors, and the license then in force for such house, and also all such other Orders, Certificates, Documents and Papers relating to any of the patients at any time received into such house, as the said Visitors shall from time to time require to be produced to them; and the said Visitors shall sign the said Books as having been produced to them.

XLI. And be it enacted, That there shall be hung up in some conspicuous part of every licensed house, a copy of the plan given to the Justices on applying for the license for such house; and that there shall be kept in every such house a Queen's Printer's copy of this Act, bound up in a Book, to be called The Visitors' Book," and that the Visitors shall at the time of their visitations enter therein the result of the inspections and inquiries herein before directed or authorized to be made by them, with such observations (if any) as they shall think proper; and that there shall also be kept in every such house, a Book to be called "The Patients' Book," and that the Visitors shall, at the times of their visitations, enter therein such observations as they may think fit respecting the state of mind or body of any patient in such house.

XLII. And be it enacted, That the proprietor or resident Superintendent of every licensed house, shall, within three days after every such visit by the Visitors as aforesaid, transmit a true and perfect copy of the entries made by them in "The Visitors' Book," "The Patients' Book," and "The Medical Visitation Book," respectively, (distinguishing the entries in the several Books,) to the Clerk of the Visitors; and the copies so transmitted to the Clerk of the Visitors of all such entries, relating to any licensed house, and made since the grant or last renewal of the license thereof, shall be laid before the Justices, on taking into consideration the renewal of the license to the house to which such entries shall relate; and every such proprietor or Superintendent as aforesaid, who shall omit to transmit to the Clerk of the Visitors, a true and perfect copy of every or any such entry as aforesaid, shall, for every such omission, forfeit a sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any two Visitors to visit and to inspect any licensed house within their jurisdiction at such hour of the night as they shall think fit.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That if and when any person who signed the Order on which any patient was received into any licensed house, shall, by writing, under his hand, direct that such patient shall be removed or discharged, then, and in such case, such patient shall forthwith be removed or discharged, as the person who signed the Order for his reception shall direct.

XLV. And be it enacted, That if the person who signed the Order upon which any patient was received into any licensed house be incapable by reason of insanity or absence from the Province, or otherwise, of giving an Order for the discharge or removal of such patient, or if such person be dead, then, and in any of such cases, the husband or wife of such patient, or if there be no such husband or wife, the father of such patient, or if there be no father, the mother of such patient, or if there be no mother, then any one of the nearest of kin for the time being of such patient, or the person who made the last payment on account of such patient, may, by any writing under his or her hand, give such direction as aforesaid, for the discharge or removal of such patient, and thereupon such patient shall be forthwith discharged or removed, as the person giving such direction shall direct.

XLVI. Provided always, nevertheless, and be it enacted, That no patient shall be discharged or removed under any of the powers hereinbefore contained from any licensed house, if the Physician by whom the same shall be kept, or who shall be the regular Medical Attendant thereof, shall, by writing under his Hand, certify that in his opinion such patient is dangerous and unfit to be at large, together with the grounds on which such opinion is founded, unless the Visitors of such house shall, after such Certificate shall have been produced to them, give their consent, in writing, that such patient shall be discharged or removed: Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent any patient from being transferred from any licensed house to any other licensed house, or to any Asylum, but in such case every such patient shall be placed under the control of an Attendant belonging to the licensed house to or from which he shall be about to be removed for the purpose of such removal, and shall remain under such control until such time as such removal shall be duly effected.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any two or more of the Visitors of any licensed house, of whom one shall be a Physician, to make special visits to any patient detained in such house, on such days and at such hours as they shall think fit, and if after two distinct and separate visits so made, it shall appear to such Visitors that such patient is detained without sufficient cause, they may make such Order as to them shall seem meet for the discharge of such patient, and such patient shall be discharged accordingly.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every such Order by any Visitors for the discharge of a patient from any licensed house shall be signed by them, and that each of such special visits shall be by the same Visitors, and that it shall not be lawful for such Visitors to order the discharge of any patient from any such house without having previously, if the Medical Attendant of such house shall have tendered himself for that purpose, examined him as to his opinion respecting the fitness of such patient to be discharged; and if such Visitors shall, after so examining such Medical Attendant, discharge such patient, and such Medical Attendant shall furnish them with any statement, in writing, containing his reasons against the discharge of such patient, they shall forthwith transmit such statement to the Clerk of the Visitors, to be kept and registered in a Book for that purpose.

XLIX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That not less than seven days shall intervene between the first and second of such special visits, and that such Visitors shall, seven days previously to the second of such special visits, give notice thereof, either by post, or by an entry in the Patients' Book, to the proprietor or Superintendent of the licensed house in which the patient intended to be visited is detained, and that such proprietor or Superintendent shall forthwith, if possible, transmit by post a copy of such notice to the person by whose authority such patient was received into such house, or by whom the last payment on account of such patient was made, and also to the Clerk of the Visitors of such house.

L. Provided always, nevertheless, and be it enacted, That none of the powers of discharge herein before contained, shall extend to any Lunatic confined under any Order or Authority of the Governor of this Province, or under the Order of any Court of Criminal Jurisdiction.

LI. And be it enacted, That if any person shall apply to any Visitor in order to be informed whether any particular person is confined in any licensed house within the jurisdiction of such Visitor, the said Visitor, if he shall think it reasonable to permit such inquiry to be made, shall sign an Order to the Clerk of the Visitors, and the said Clerk shall, on receipt of such Order, and on payment to him of a sum not exceeding one Schilling for his trouble, make search amongst the returns made to him in pursuance of this Act, whether the person, inquired after is or has been, within the, then last twelve months, confined in any licensed house within the jurisdiction of such Visitor; and if it shall appear that such person is or has been so confined, the said Clerk shall deliver to the person so applying a statement in writing, specifying the situation of the house in which the person so inquired after appears to be or to have been confined, and the name of the proprietor or resident Superintendent thereof, and also the date of the admission of such person into such licensed house, and (in case of his having been removed or discharged) the date of his removal on discharge therefrom.

LII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any one of the Visitors of any licensed house at any time to give an Order in writing under his Hand for the admission to any patient confined in such house of any relation or friend of such patient (or of any medical or other person whom any relation or friend of such patient shall desire to be admitted to him) and such Order of Admission may be either for a single admission, or for an admission for any limited number of times, or for admission generally at all reasonable times, and either with or without any restriction as to such admission or admissions being in the presence of a Keeper or not, or otherwise; and if the proprietor or Superintendent of any such house shall refuse admission to, or shall prevent or obstruct the admission to any patient of any relation, friend or other person who shall produce such Order of Admission as aforesaid, he shall for every such refusal, prevention or obstruction, forfeit a sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

LIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the proprietor or Superintendent of any licensed house, with the consent in writing of any two of the Visitors of such house, to send or take, under proper control, any patient to any specified place for any definite time for the benefit of his health: Provided always, nevertheless, that before any such consent as aforesaid shall be given by any Visitors, the approval in writing of the person who signed the Order for the reception of such patient, or by whom the last payment on account of such patient was made, shall be produced to such Visitors, unless they shall, on cause being shewn, dispense with the same.

LIV. And be it enacted, That in every case in which any patient shall, under any of the powers or provisions of this Act, be removed temporarily from the licensed house into which the Order for this reception was given, or be transferred from such house into any new house, and also in every case in which any patient shall escape from any such house and shall be retaken within fourteen days next after such escape, the Certificate or Certificates relating to and the original Order for the reception of such patient shall respectively remain in force, in the same manner as the same would have done if such patient had not been so removed or transferred, or had not so escaped and been retaken.

LV. And be it enacted, That every proprietor or Superintendent of a licensed house, who shall receive a proper Order in pursuance of this Act, accompanied with the required Medical Certificates or Certificate for the reception or taking care of any person as a Lunatic, and the Assistants and servants of such proprietor or Superintendent shall have power and authority to take charge of, receive and detain such patient until he shall die or be removed, or discharged by due authority; and in case of the escape at any time or times of such patient, to retake him at any time within fourteen days after such escape, and again to detain him as aforesaid; and in every Writ, Indictment, Information, Action and other proceeding which shall be preferred or brought against any such proprietor or Superintendent so authorized as aforesaid, or against any Assistant or servant of any such proprietor or Superintendent, for taking, confining, detaining or retaking any person as a Lunatic, the party complained of may plead such Order and Certificates or Certificate in defence to any such Writ, Indictment, Information, Action or other proceeding as aforesaid, and such Order and Certificates or Certificate shall, as respects such party, be a justification for taking, confining, detaining or retaking such Lunatic or alleged Lunatic.

LVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Visitors of any licensed house, or any two of such Visitors, from time to time, as they shall see occasion, to require, by Summons under their Hands and Seals, (according to the form in Schedule (J) annexed to this Act, or as near thereto as the case will permit,) any person to appear before them to testify, on oath, the truth touching any matters respecting which such Visitors are by this Act authorized to inquire, (which oath such Visitors are hereby empowered to administer;) and every person who shall not appear before such Visitors pursuant to such Summons, or shall not assign some reasonable excuse for not so appearing, or shall appear and refuse to be sworn or examined, shall, on being convicted thereof before one of Her Majesty's Justices for the District or County within which the place at which such person shall have been by such Summons required to appear and give evidence is situate, for every such neglect or refusal, forfeit a sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

LVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Visitors who shall summon any person to appear and give evidence as aforesaid, to direct the Clerk of such Visitors to pay to such person all reasonable expenses of his appearance and attendance, in pursuance of such Summons; the same to be considered as expenses incurred by such Visitors, in the execution of this Act, and to be taken into account and paid accordingly.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That every complaint or information of or for any offence against this Act, where any pecuniary penalty is hereby imposed, maybe made before one Justice; and when any person shall be charged upon oath, before a Justice, for any such offence against this Act, such Justice may summon the person charged to appear at a time and place to be named in such Summons, and if he shall not appear accordingly, and upon proof of due service of the Summons, (either personally or by leaving the same at his last or usual place of abode) any two Justices may either proceed to hear and determine the case, or may issue their Warrant for apprehending such person and bringing him before any two Justices; and any two Justices shall and may, upon the appearing of such person, pursuant to such Summons, or upon such person being apprehended with such Warrant, or upon the non-appearance of such person, hear the matter of every such complaint or information, and make any such determination thereon as such Justices shall think proper; and upon conviction of any person, such Justices may, if they shall think fit, reduce the amount of the penalty by this Act imposed for such offence, to any sum not less than one fourth of the amount thereof, and shall and may issue a Warrant under their Hands and Seals for levying such penalty, or reduced penalty, and all costs and charges of such Summons, Warrant and hearing, and all incidental costs and charges, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person so convicted; and it shall be lawful for any such two Justices to order any person so convicted to be detained and kept in the custody of any Constable or other Peace Officer until return can be conveniently made to such Warrant of Distress, unless the said offender shall give security to the satisfaction of such Justices, by way of Recognizance or otherwise, for his appearance before such Justices on such day as shall be appointed for the return of such Warrant of Distress, such day not being more than seven days from the time of taking any such security: but if, upon the return of such Warrant of Distress, it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had whereupon to levy the said penalty or reduced penalty, and such costs and charges as aforesaid, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of such Justices, either by the confession of the offender or otherwise, that the offender hath not sufficient goods and chattels whereupon the said penalty or reduced penalty, costs and charges may be levied, such Justices shall and may, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, commit such offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the District or County, as the case may be, for any term not exceeding three months, unless such penalty or reduced penalty, costs and charges as aforesaid, shall be sooner paid; and all such penalties and reduced penalties, when recovered, shall be paid to the Clerk of the Peace for the District or County in which the offence was committed, to be by him applied and accounted for as hereinbefore directed with respect to moneys received for licenses granted by the; Justices of; such District or County; and, the overplus (if any) arising from such distress and sale, after payment of the penalty or reduced penalty, and all costs and charges as aforesaid, shall: be paid, upon demand, to the owner of the goods and chattels so distrained.

LIX. And be it enacted, That the Justices before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence against this Act for which a pecuniary penalty is imposed, may cause the conviction to be drawn up in the following form, or in any other form to the same effect, as the case may require; and that no conviction under this Act shall be void through want of form:

“Be it remembered, that on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord _____, at _____, in the District (or County) of _____, A. B. was convicted before us _____ of Her Majesty’s Justices of the Peace for the said District (or County,) for that he the said _____ did _____ and we the said _____ adjudge the said _____ for his offence to pay the sum of _____.”

LX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any person who shall think himself aggrieved by any Order or Determination of any Justices under this Act, may, within four months after such Order made or given, appeal to the Justices at General or Quarter Sessions; the person appealing having first given at least fourteen clear days’ notice in writing of such appeal, and the nature and matter thereof, to the person appealed against, and forthwith after such notice entering into a Recognizance before some Justice with two sufficient sureties, conditioned to try such appeal and to abide the Order and Award of the said Court thereupon; and the said Justices at General or Quarter Sessions, upon the proof of such notice and Recognizance having been given and entered into, shall, in a summary way, hear and determine such appeal, or if they think proper, adjourn the hearing thereof until the next General or Quarter Sessions, and if they see cause, may mitigate any penalty to not less than one fourth of the amount imposed by this Act, and may order any money to be returned which shall have been levied in pursuance of such Order or Determination, and shall and may also award such further satisfaction to be made to the party injured, or such costs to either of the parties as they shall judge reasonable and proper; and all such determinations of the said Justices at General or Quarter Sessions shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all parties to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

LXI. And be it enacted, That if any action or suit shall be brought against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, the same shall be commenced within twelve months next after the release of the party bringing the action, and shall be laid or brought in the District or County where the cause of action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere: and the defendant in every such action or suit may, at his election, plead specially or plead the general issue not guilty, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence at any trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the authority of this Act; and if the same shall appear to be so done, or that such action or suit shall be brought in any other District or County than as aforesaid, or shall not have been commenced within the time before limited for bringing the same, then the Jury shall find a verdict for the defendant; and upon a verdict being so found, or if the plaintiff shall be non-suited or discontinue his action or suit after the defendant shall have appeared, or if upon demurrer judgment shall be given against the plaintiff, then the defendant shall recover double costs, and have such remedy for recovering the same as any defendant hath or may have in any other cases by law.

LXII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Clerk of any Visitors on their Order, to prosecute any person for any offence against the provisions of this Act committed within the jurisdiction of such Visitors, and to sue for and recover any penalty to which any person within the jurisdiction of such Visitors is made liable by this Act, and all penalties sued for and recovered by any such Clerk shall be paid to him, and be by him paid to the Clerk of the Peace for such District or County, and be by such Clerk of the Peace applied and accounted for as hereinbefore directed with respect to moneys received for licenses by such Clerk of the Peace, and it shall not be lawful for any one to prosecute any person for any offence against the provisions of this Act, or to sue for any penalty to which any person is made liable by this Act, except by Order of Visitors having jurisdiction in the place where the cause of prosecution has arisen or the penalty been incurred, or with the consent of Her Majesty's Attorney General or Solicitor General for Lower or Upper Canada, as the case may require, for the time being.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That when any person shall be proceeded against, under the provisions of this Act, for omitting to transmit or send any copy, list, notice, statement or other document hereinbefore required to be transmitted by such person, and such person shall prove by the testimony of one person upon oath, that the copy, list, notice, statement, or other document in respect of which such proceeding is taken was put into the proper Post Office in due time, or (in case of documents required to be transmitted to a Clerk of the Peace), left at the office of such Clerk of the Peace, and was properly addressed, such proof shall be a bar to all further proceedings in respect of such omission.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That the costs, charges and expenses incurred by or under the Order of any Visitors in any proceedings under this Act, shall be paid by the Clerk of the Peace for the District or County in which such Visitors shall have been appointed, and included by him in the account of receipts and payments hereinbefore directed to be kept by him.
