14 & 15 Victoria – Chapter 95

An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of Justices of the Peace, out of Sessions, with respect to Summary Convictions and Orders. 30th August, 1851.

Whereas it would conduce much to the improvement of the administration of justice within that part of this Province called Lower Canada, so far as respects Summary Convictions and Orders to be made by Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace therein, if the several Statutes and parts of Statutes relating to the duties of such Justices in respect of such Summary Convictions and Orders were consolidated, with such additions and alterations as may be deemed necessary, and that such duties should be clearly defined by positive enactment: Beit therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all cases where an information shall be laid before one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for any District in Lower Canada, that any person has committed or is suspected to have committed any offence or act within the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices of the Peace, for which he is liable by law, upon a Summary Conviction for the same before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, to be imprisoned or fined, or otherwise punished; and also in all cases where a complaint shall be made to any such Justice or Justices, upon which he or they have or shall have authority by law to make any Order for the payment of money or otherwise, then in every such case it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace to issue his or their Summons (A), directed to such person, stating shortly, the matter of such information or complaint, and requiring him to appear at a certain time and place, before the same Justice or Justices, or before such other Justice or Justices of the same District as shall then be there, to answer to the said information or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; and every such Summons shall be served by a Constable or other Peace Officer, or other person to whom the same shall be delivered, upon the person to whom it is so directed, by delivering the same to the party personally, or by leaving the same with some person for him, at his last or most usual place of abode; and the Constable, Peace Officer, or person who shall serve the same in manner aforesaid, shall attend at the time and place, and before the Justices in the said Summons mentioned, to depose, if necessary, to the service of the said Summons: Provided always, that nothing herein mentioned shall oblige any Justice or Justices of the Peace to issue any such Summons in any case where the application for any Order of Justices is by law to be made ex parte: Provided also, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any information, complaint or summons, for any alleged fact therein, in substance or in form, or for any variance between such information, complaint or summons, and the evidence adduced on the part of the informant or complainant at the hearing of such information or complaint as hereinafter mentioned; but if any such variance shall appear to the Justice or Justices present and acting at such hearing to be such that the party so summoned and appearing has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, upon such terms as he or they shall think fit, to adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day.

II. And be it enacted, That if the person so served with a Summons as aforesaid shall not be and appear before the Justice or Justices at the time and place mentioned in such Summons, and it shall be made to appear to such Justice or Justices, by oath or affirmation, that such Summons was so served, what shall be deemed by such Justice or Justices to be a reasonable time before the time therein appointed for appearing to the same, then it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, if he or they shall think fit, upon oath or affirmation being made before him or them, substantiating the matter of such information or complaint to his or their satisfaction, to issue his or their Warrant (B) to apprehend the party so summoned, and to bring him before the same Justice or Justices or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace in and for the same District, to answer to the said information or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; or upon such information being laid as aforesaid for any offence punishable on conviction, the Justice or Justices before whom such conviction shall have been made may, if he or they shall think fit, upon oath or affirmation being made before him or them substantiating the matter of such information to his or their satisfaction, instead of issuing such Summons as aforesaid, issue in the first instance his or their Warrant (C) for apprehending the person against whom such information shall have been so laid, and bringing him before the same Justice or Justices, or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace in and for the same District, to answer to the said information, and to be further dealt with according to law; or if where a Summons shall be so issued as aforesaid, and upon the day and at the place appointed in and by the said Summons for the appearance of the party so summoned, such party shall fail to appear accordingly in obedience to such Summons, then and in every such case, if it be proved upon oath or affirmation to the Justice or Justices then present, that such Summons was duly served upon such party a reasonable time before the time so appointed for his appearance as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace to proceed ex parte to the hearing of such information or complaint, and to adjudicate thereon, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if such party had personally appeared before him or them in obedience to the said Summons.

III. And be it enacted, That every such Warrant to apprehend a Defendant, that he may answer to such information or complaint as aforesaid, shall be under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of the Justice or Justices issuing the same, and may be directed to all or any of the Constables or other Peace Officers of the District within which the same is to be executed, or to such Constable and all other Constables within the District within which the Justice or Justices issuing such Warrant hath or have jurisdiction, or generally to all the Constables within such last mentioned District, and it shall state shortly the matter of the information or complaint on which it is founded, and shall name or otherwise describe the person against whom it has been issued, and it shall order the Constable or other Peace Officer to whom it is directed, to apprehend the said Defendant, and to bring him before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, as the case may require, of the same District, to answer to the said information or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; and that it shall not be necessary to make such Warrant returnable at any particular time, but the same may remain in full force until it shall be executed; and such Warrant may be executed by apprehending the Defendant at any place within the District within which the Justices issuing the same shall have jurisdiction, or, in case of fresh pursuit, at any place in the next adjoining District, within seven miles of the border of such first mentioned District, without having such Warrant backed as hereinafter mentioned; and in all cases in which such Warrant shall be directed to all Constables or Peace Officers within the District within which the Justice or Justices issuing the same shall have jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for any Constable or Peace Officer for any place within the limits of the-jurisdiction for which such Justice or Justices shall have acted when he or they granted such Warrant, to execute such Warrant in like manner as if such Warrant were directed specially to such Constable by name, and notwithstanding that the place in which such Warrant shall be executed, shall not be within the place for which he shall be such Constable or Peace Officer; and if the person against whom any such Warrant has been issued be not found within the jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices by whom it issued, or, if he shall escape, go into, reside or be, or be supposed or suspected to be in any place within this Province, whether in Upper or Lower Canada, out of the jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices issuing the Warrant, any Justice of the Peace, within whose jurisdiction such person shall be or be suspected to be as aforesaid, upon proof alone upon oath of the hand-writing of the Justice or Justices issuing the Warrant, may make an endorsement upon it, signed with his name, authorizing the execution of the Warrant within his jurisdiction; and such endorsement shall be a sufficient authority to the person bringing the Warrant, and to all other persons to whom it was originally directed, and to all Constables or other Peace Officers of the District, County or place where the endorsement is made, to execute the same in any place within the jurisdiction of the Justice of the Peace endorsing the same, and to carry the offender, when apprehended, before the Justice or Justices who first issued the Warrant or some other Justice having the same jurisdiction; Provided always, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any such Warrant to apprehend a Defendant, so issued upon any such information or complaint as aforesaid, under or by virtue of this Act, for any alleged defect therein in substance or in form, or for any variance between it and the evidence adduced on the part of the Informant or Complainant as hereinafter mentioned; but if any such variance shall appear to the Justice or Justices present and acting at such hearing, to be such that the party so apprehended under such Warrant has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, upon such terms as he or they shall think fit, to adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day, and in the meantime to commit (D.) the said Defendant to the House of Correction or other prison, lock-up house, or place of security, or to such other custody as the said Justice or Justices shall think fit, or to discharge him upon his entering into a Recognizance (E.), with or without Surety or Sureties, at the discretion of such Justice or Justices, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place to which such hearing shall be so adjourned: Provided always, that in all cases where a Defendant shall be discharged upon Recognizance as aforesaid, and shall not afterwards appear at the time and place in such Recognizance mentioned, then the said Justice, who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any Justice or Justices, who may then be there present, upon certifying (F.) upon the back of the said Recognizance the non-appearance of the Defendant, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace of the District within which such Recognizance shall have been taken, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient primâ facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said Defendant.

IV. And be it enacted, That in any information or complaint or proceedings thereon, in which it shall be necessary to state the ownership of any property belonging to or in the possession of partners, joint tenants, parceners or tenants in common, it shall be sufficient to name one of such persons, and to state the property to belong to the person so named and another, or others, as the case may be, and whenever in any information or complaint, or the proceedings thereon, it shall be necessary to mention, for any purpose whatsoever, any partners, joint tenants, parceners or tenants in common, it shall be sufficient to describe them in the manner aforesaid; and whenever in any such information or complaint, or the proceedings thereon, it shall be necessary to describe the ownership of any work or building made, maintained or repaired at the expense of any District, County, Township, City, Parish or place, or of any materials for the making, altering or repairing the same, they may be therein described as the property of the inhabitants of such District, County, Township, City, Parish or place, respectively.

V. And be it enacted, That every person who shall aid, abet, counsel or procure the commission of any offence which is or hereafter shall be punishable on Summary Conviction, shall be liable to be proceeded against and convicted for the same, either together with the principal offender, or before or after his conviction, and shall be liable, on conviction, to the same forfeiture and punishment as such principal offender is or shall be by law liable, and may be proceeded against and convicted either in the District, County, Township, City, Parish or place where such principal offender may be convicted, or in that in which such offence of aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring may have been committed.

VI. And be it enacted, That if it shall be made to appear to any Justice of the Peace, by the oath or affirmation of any credible person, that any person within the jurisdiction of such Justice is likely to give material evidence on behalf of the Prosecutor or Complainant or Defendant, and will not voluntarily be and appear as a witness at the time and place appointed for the hearing of such information or complaint, such Justice may, and is hereby required to issue his Summons (G1) to such person, under his Hand and Seal, requiring him to be and appear at a time and place mentioned in such Summons, before the said Justice, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said District, as shall then be there to testify what he shall know concerning the said information or complaint; and if any person so summoned shall neglect or refuse to appear at the time and place appointed by the said Summons, and no just excuse shall be offered for such neglect or refusal, then (after proof upon oath or affirmation of such Summons having been served upon such person, either personally or by leaving the same for him with some person at his last or most usual place of abode) it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices before whom such person should have appeared, to issue a Warrant (G2) under his or their Hands and Seals, to bring and have such person, at a time and place to be therein mentioned, before the Justice who issued the said Summons, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same District as shall be then there, to testify as aforesaid, and which said Warrant may, if necessary, be backed as hereinbefore is mentioned, in order to its being executed out of the jurisdiction of the Justice who shall have issued the same; or if such Justice shall be satisfied, by evidence upon oath or affirmation, that it is probable that such person will not attend to give evidence without being compelled so to do, then instead of issuing such Summons it shall be lawful for him to issue his Warrant (G3) in the first instance, and which, if necessary, may be backed as aforesaid; and if on the appearance of such person so summoned before the said last mentioned Justice or Justices, either in obedience to such Summons, or upon being brought before him or them, by virtue of the said Warrant, such person shall refuse to be examined upon oath or affirmation concerning the premises, or shall refuse to take such oath or affirmation, or having taken such oath or affirmation shall refuse to answer such questions concerning the premises as shall then be put to him, without offering any just excuse for such refusal, any justice of the Peace then present, and having jurisdiction, may, by Warrant (G 4) under his Hand and Seal, commit the person so refusing to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the District where such person refusing shall then be, there to remain and be imprisoned for any time not exceeding ten days, unless he shall, in the meantime, consent to be examined and to answer concerning the premises.

VII. And be it enacted, That in all cases of complaints upon which a Justice or Justices of the Peace may make an Order for the payment of money or otherwise, it shall not be necessary that such complaint shall be in writing, unless it shall be required to be so by some particular Act of Parliament upon which such complaint shall be framed.

VIII. And be it enacted, That in all cases of informations for any offences or acts punishable upon Summary Conviction, any variance between such information and the evidence adduced in support thereof as to the time at which such offence or act shall be alleged to have been committed, shall not be deemed material if it be proved that such information was in fact laid within the time limited by law for laying the same; and any variance between the said information and the evidence adduced in support thereof, as to the place in which the offence or act shall be alleged to have been committed, shall not be deemed material, provided that the offence or act be proved to have been committed within the jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices by whom such information shall be heard and determined; and if any such variance, or any variance in any other respect between such information and the evidence adduced in support thereof, shall appear to the Justice or Justices present, and acting at the hearing, to be such that the party charged by such information has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, upon such terms as lie or they shall think fit, to adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day, and in the meantime to commit (D) the said Defendant to the House of Correction or other prison, lock-up house or place of security, or to such other custody as the said Justice or Justices shall think fit, or to discharge him upon his entering into a Recognizance (E), with or without Surety or Sureties, at the discretion of such Justice or Justices, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place to which such hearing shall be so adjourned: Provided always, that in all cases where a Defendant shall be discharged upon Recognizance as aforesaid, and shall not afterwards appear at the time and place in such Recognizance mentioned, then the said Justice who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any other Justice or Justices who may then be there present, upon certifying (F) upon The back of the said Recognizance the non-appearance of the Defendant, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace of the District within which such Recognizance shall have been taken, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient primâ facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said Defendant.

IX. And be it declared and enacted, That every such complaint upon which a Justice or Justices of the Peace is, or are or shall be authorized by law to make an Order, and that every information for any offence or act punishable upon Summary Conviction, unless some particular Act of Parliament shall otherwise require, may respectively be made or laid without any oath or affirmation being made of the truth thereof, except in cases of informations, where the Justice or Justices receiving the same shall thereupon issue his or their Warrant in the first instance, to apprehend the Defendant as aforesaid; and in every such case where the Justice or Justices shall issue his or their Warrant in the first instance, the matter of such information shall be substantiated by the oath or affirmation of the informant, or by some witness or witnesses on his behalf, before any such Warrant shall be issued, and every such complaint shall be for one matter of complaint only, and not for two or more matters of complaint, and every such information shall be for one offence only, and not for two or more offences, and every such complaint or information may be laid or made by the Complainant or Informant in person, or by his Counsel or Attorney, or other person authorized in that behalf.

X. And be it enacted, That in all cases where no time is already or shall hereafter be specially limited for making any such complaint or laying any such information in the Act or Acts of Parliament relating to such particular case, such complaint shall be made, and such information shall be laid within six calendar months from the time when the matter of such complaint or information respectively arose.

XI. And be it enacted, That every such complaint or information shall be heard, tried, determined and adjudged by one or two or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, as shall be directed by the Act or Acts of Parliament upon which such complaint or information shall be framed, or such other Act or Acts of Parliament as there may be in that behalf; and if there be no such direction in any such Act of Parliament, then such complaint or information may be heard, tried, determined and adjudged by any one Justice for the District where the matter of such information or complaint shall have arisen; and the room or place in which such Justice or Justices shall sit to hear and try any such complaint or information, shall be deemed an open and public Court to which the public generally may have access, so far as the same can conveniently contain them; and the party against whom such complaint is made or information laid, shall be admitted to make his full answer and defence thereto, and to have the witnesses examined and cross-examined by Counsel or Attorney on his behalf; and every Complainant or Informant in any such case shall be at liberty to conduct such' complaint or information respectively, and to have the Witnesses examined and cross- examined by Counsel or Attorney on his behalf.

XII. And be it enacted, That if at the day and place appointed in and by the Summons aforesaid for hearing and determining such complaint or information, the Defendant against whom the same shall have been made or laid shall not appear when called, the Constable, or other person who shall have served him with the Summons in that behalf, shall then declare upon oath in what manner he served the said Summons; and if it appear to the satisfaction of any Justice or Justices that he duly served the said Summons in that case, such Justice or Justices may proceed to hear and determine the case in the absence of such Defendant, or the said Justice or Justices, upon the non-appearance of such Defendant as aforesaid, may, if he or they think fit, issue his or their Warrant in manner hereinbefore directed, and shall adjourn the hearing of such complaint or information until the said Defendant shall be apprehended; and when such Defendant shall afterwards be apprehended under such Warrant, he shall be brought before the same Justice or Justices, or some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same District, who shall thereupon, either by his or their Warrant (H) commit such Defendant to the House of Correction or other prison, lock-up house or place of security, or if he or they think fit, verbally to the custody of the Constable or other person who shall have apprehended him, or to such other safe custody as he or they shall deem fit, and order the said Defendant to be brought up at a certain time and place before such Justice or Justices of the Peace as shall then be there, of which said Order the Complainant or Informant shall have due notice; or if upon the day and at the place so appointed as aforesaid, such Defendant shall appear voluntarily in obedience to the Summons in that behalf served upon him, or shall be brought before the said Justice or Justices by virtue of any Warrant, then, if the said Complainant or Informant, having had due notice as aforesaid, do not appear by himself, his Counsel or Attorney, the said Justice or Justices shall dismiss such complaint or information unless for some reason he or they shall think proper to adjourn the hearing of the same until some other day, upon such terms as he or they shall think fit, in which case such Justice or Justices may commit (D) the Defendant in the meantime to the House of Correction or other prison, lock-up house or place of security, or to such other custody as such Justice or Justices shall think fit, or may discharge him upon his entering into a Recognizance (E) with or without Surety or Sureties, at the discretion of such Justice or Justices, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place to which such hearing shall be so adjourned; and if such Defendant shall not afterwards appear at the time and place mentioned in such Recognizance, then the said Justice who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any Justice or Justices who may then be there present, upon certifying (F) on the back of the Recognizance the non-appearance of the Defendant, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace for the District in which such Recognizance shall have been taken, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient primâ facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said Defendant; but if both parties appear, either personally or by their respective Counsel or Attorneys, before the Justice or Justices who are to hear and determine such complaint or information, then the said Justice or Justices shall proceed to hear and determine the same.

XIII. And be it enacted, That when such Defendant shall be present at such hearing, the substance of the information or complaint shall be stated to him, and he shall be asked if he have any cause to shew why lie should not be convicted, or why an Order should not be made against him, as the case may be; and if he thereupon admit the truth of the information or complaint, and shew no cause or no sufficient cause why he should not be convicted, or why an Order should not be made against him, as the case may be, then the Justice or Justices, present at the said hearing, shall convict him or make an Order against him accordingly; but if he do not admit the truth of such information or complaint as aforesaid, then the said Justice or Justices shall proceed to hear the Prosecutor or Complainant and such Witnesses as he may examine, and such other evidence as he may adduce in support of his information or complaint respectively, and also to hear the Defendant and such Witnesses as he may examine, and such other evidence as he may adduce in his defence, and also to hear such Witnesses as the Prosecutor or Complainant may examine in reply, if such Defendant shall have examined any Witnesses or given any evidence other than as to his the Defendant's general character; but the Prosecutor or Complainant shall not be entitled to make any observations in reply upon the evidence given by the Defendant, nor shall the Defendant be entitled to make any observations in reply upon the evidence given by the Prosecutor or Complainant in reply as aforesaid; and the said Justice or Justices, having heard what each party shall have to say as aforesaid, and the Witnesses and evidence so adduced, shall consider the whole matter and determine the same, and shall convict or make an Order upon the Defendant or dismiss the information or complaint, as the case may be; and if he or they convict or make an Order against the Defendant, a Minute or Memorandum thereof shall then be made, for which no fee shall be paid, and the conviction (I 1, 3) or Order (K 1, 3) shall afterwards be drawn up by the said Justice or Justices in proper form, under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, and he or they shall cause the same to be lodged with the Clerk of the Peace to be by him filed among the Records of the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace; or if the said Justice or Justices shall dismiss such information or complaint, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, when required so to do, to make an Order of Dismissal of the same (L), and shall give the Defendant on that behalf a Certificate thereof (M), which said Certificate afterwards upon being produced, without further proof, shall be a bar to any subsequent information or complaint for the same matters respectively, against the same party: Provided always, that if the information or complaint in any such case shall negative any exemption, exception, proviso, or condition in the Statute on which the same shall be framed, it shall not be necessary for the Prosecutor or Complainant in that behalf to prove such negative, but the Defendant may prove the affirmative thereof in his defence, if he would have advantage of the same.

XIV. And be it enacted, That every Prosecutor of any such information, not having any pecuniary interest in the result of the same, and every Complainant in any such complaint as aforesaid, whatever his interest may be in the result of the same, shall be a competent Witness to support such information or complaint respectively, and every Witness at any such hearing as aforesaid shall be examined upon oath or affirmation, and the Justice or Justices before whom any such Witness shall appear for the purpose of being so examined, shall have full power and authority to administer to every such Witness the usual oath or affirmation.

XV. And be it enacted, That before or during such hearing of any such information or complaint, it shall be lawful for any one Justice or for the Justices present, in their discretion, to adjourn the hearing of the same to a certain time and place to be then appointed and stated in the presence and hearing of the party or parties, or of their respective Attorneys or Agents then present, and in the meantime the said Justice or Justices may suffer the Defendant to go at large or may commit (D) him to the Common Gaol or House of Correction or other prison, lock-up place or other place of security within the District for which such Justice or Justices shall then be acting, or to such other safe custody as the said Justice or Justices shall think fit, or may discharge such Defendant upon his Recognizance (E), with or without Sureties, at the discretion of such Justices, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place to which such hearing or further hearing shall be adjourned; and if, at the time or place to which such hearing or further hearing shall be so adjourned, either or both of the parties shall not appear, personally or by his or their Counsel or Attorneys respectively, before the said Justice or Justices, or such other Justice or Justices as shall then be there, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices then there present to proceed to such hearing or further hearing as if such party or parties were present; or if the Prosecutor or Complainant do not appear, the said Justice or Justices may dismiss the said information or complaint with or without costs, as to such Justices shall seem fit: Provided always, that in all cases when a Defendant shall be discharged upon his Recognizance as aforesaid, and shall not afterwards appear at the time and place mentioned in such Recognizance, then the said Justice or Justices who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any other Justice or Justices who may then be there present, upon certifying (F) on the back of the Recognizance the non-appearance of such accused party, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace for the District in which such Recognizance shall have been taken, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient primâ facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said Defendant.

XVI. And be it enacted, That in all cases of conviction where no particular form of such conviction is or shall be given by the Statute creating the offence or regulating the prosecution for the same, and in all cases of conviction upon Statutes hitherto passed, whether any particular form of conviction have been therein given or not, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices who shall so convict, to draw up his or their conviction, on parchment or on paper, in such one of the forms of conviction (I 1, 3) in the Schedule of this Act contained as shall be applicable to such case, or to the like effect; and when an Order shall be made, and no particular form of Order is or shall be given by the Statute giving authority to make such Order, and in all cases of Orders to be made under the authority of any Statutes hitherto passed, whether any particular form of Order shall therein be given or not, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices by whom such Order is to be made, to draw up the same in such one of the forms of Orders (K 1, 3) in the Schedule to this Act contained, as may be applicable to such case, or to the like effect; and in all cases when by an Act of Parliament authority is given to commit a person to prison, or to levy any sum upon his goods or chattels by distress, for not obeying any Order of a Justice or Justices, the Defendant shall be served with a copy of the Minute of such Order before any Warrant of Commitment or of Distress shall issue in that behalf, and such Order or Minute shall not form any part of such Warrant of Commitment or of Distress.

XVII. And be it enacted, That in all cases of Summary Conviction, or of Orders made by a Justice or Justices of the Peace, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices making the same, in his or their discretion, to award and order in and by such Conviction or Order that the Defendant shall pay to the Prosecutor or Complainant respectively such costs as to the said Justice or Justices shall seem reasonable in that behalf; and in cases where such Justice or Justices, instead of convicting or making an Order as aforesaid, shall dismiss the information or complaint, it shall be lawful, for him or them, in his or their discretion, in and by his or their Order of Dismissal, to award and order that the Prosecutor or Complainant, respectively, shall pay to the Defendant such costs as to the said Justice or Justices shall seem reasonable, and the sums so allowed for costs shall in all cases be specified in such Conviction or Order, or Order of Dismissal as aforesaid, and the same shall be recoverable in the same manner and under the same Warrants as any penalty or sum of money adjudged to be paid in and by such Conviction or Order is to be recoverable; and in cases where there is no such penalty or sum of money to be thereby recovered, then such costs shall be recoverable by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party, and in default of such distress, by imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any time not exceeding one calendar month, unless such costs shall be sooner paid.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That where a Conviction adjudges a pecuniary penalty or compensation to be paid, or where an Order requires the payment of a sum of money, and by the Statute authorizing such Conviction or Order, such penalty, compensation, or sum of money is to be levied upon the goods and chattels of the Defendant, by distress and sale thereof; and also in cases where, by the Statute in that behalf, no mode of raising or levying such penalty, compensation or sum of money, or of enforcing the payment of the same, is stated or provided, it shall be lawful for the Justice or any one of the Justices making such Conviction or Order, or for any Justice of the Peace for the same District, to issue his Warrant of Distress (N 1, 2) for the purpose of levying the same, which said Warrant of Distress shall be in writing, under the Hand and Seal of the Justice making the same; and if, after delivery of such Warrant of Distress to the Constable or. Constables to whom the same shall have been directed to be executed, sufficient distress shall not be found within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Justice granting such Warrant, then upon proof alone being made upon oath of the handwriting of the Justice granting such Warrant, before any Justice of any other District, such Justice of such other District shall thereupon make an endorsement (N 3) on such Warrant, signed with his Hand, authorizing the execution of such Warrant within the limits of his jurisdiction, by virtue of which said Warrant and endorsement the penalty or sum aforesaid, and costs, or so much thereof as may not have been before levied or paid, shall and may be levied by the person bringing such Warrant, or by the person or persons to whom such Warrant was originally directed, or by any Constable or other Peace Officer of such last mentioned District, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the Defendant in such other District: Provided always that whenever it shall appear to any Justice of the Peace to whom application shall be made for any such Warrant of Distress as aforesaid, that the issuing thereof would be ruinous to the Defendant and his family, or whenever it shall appear to the said Justice, by the confession of the Defendant or otherwise, that he hath no goods and chattels whereon to levy such distress, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for such Justice, if he shall deem it fit, instead of issuing such Warrant of Distress, to commit such Defendant to the House of Correction, or, if there be no House of Correction within his jurisdiction, then to the Common Gaol, there to be imprisoned with or without hard labor, for such time and in such manner as by law such Defendant might be so committed in case such Warrant of Distress had issued, and no goods or chattels had been found whereon to levy such penalty or sum and costs aforesaid.

XIX. And be it enacted, That in all cases where a Justice of the Peace shall issue any such Warrant of Distress, it shall be lawful for him to suffer the Defendant to go at large, or verbally, or by a written Warrant in that behalf, to order the Defendant to be kept and detained in safe custody, until Return shall be made to such Warrant of Distress, unless such Defendant shall give sufficient security, by Recognizance or otherwise, to the satisfaction of such Justice, for his appearance before him at the time and place appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, or before such other Justice or Justices for the same District as may then be there: Provided always, that in all cases where a Defendant shall give security by Recognizance as aforesaid, and shall not afterwards appear at the time and place in the said Recognizance mentioned, then the said Justice who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any Justice or Justices who may then be there present, upon certifying (F) on the back of the Recognizance the non-appearance of the Defendant, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace for the District within which the offence shall be laid to have been committed, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient primâ facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said Defendant.

XX.
