

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of United Canada, passed in the year 1851. York: Stewart Derbshire and George Desbarts, 1851.

14 & 15 Victoria – Chapter 96

An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of Justices of the Peace, out of Sessions, with respect to persons charged with Indictable Offences. 30th August, 1851.

Whereas it would conduce much to the improvement of the administration of Criminal Justice in Lower Canada, if the several Statutes and parts of Statutes relating to the duties of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace therein, with respect to persons charged with indictable offences, were consolidated, with such additions and alterations as may be deemed necessary, and that such duties should be clearly defined by positive enactment: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all cases where a charge or complaint (A) is made before any one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for any District in Lower Canada, that any person has committed, or is suspected to have committed, any treason, felony or other indictable misdemeanor or offence within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices of the Peace, or that any person guilty or suspected to be guilty of having committed any such crime or offence elsewhere out of the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices, is residing or being, or is suspected to reside or be within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices, then, and in every such case, if the person so charged or complained against shall not then be in custody, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace to issue his or their Warrant (B) to apprehend such person, and to cause him to be brought before such Justice or Justices, or any other Justice or Justices for the same District, to answer such charge or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law: Provided always, that in all cases it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices to whom such charge or complaint shall be preferred, if he or they shall so think fit, instead of issuing in the first instance his or their Warrant to apprehend the person so charged or complained against, to issue his or their Summons (C) directed to such person, requiring him to appear before the said Justice or Justices, at the time and place to be therein mentioned, or before such other Justice or Justices of the same District as may then be there, and if, after being served with such Summons in manner hereinafter mentioned, he shall fail to appear at such time and place, in obedience to such Summons, then, and in every such case, the said Justice or Justices, or any other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same District, may issue his or their Warrant (D) to apprehend such person so charged or complained against, and cause such person to be brought before him or them, or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same District, to answer to the said charge or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any Justice or Justices of the Peace from issuing the Warrant hereinbefore first mentioned, at any time before or after the time mentioned in such Summons for the appearance of the said accused party.

II. And be it enacted, That when any indictment shall be found by the Grand Jury in any Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, or in any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, against any person who shall then be at large, and whether such person shall be bound by any Recognizance to appear to answer to any such charge or not, the person who shall act as Clerk of the Crown at such Court of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, or as Clerk of the Peace at such Sessions at which the said indictment shall be found, shall, at any time afterwards after the end of the Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, or Sessions of the Peace, at which such indictment shall have been found, upon application of the Prosecutor, or of any person on his behalf, and on payment of a fee of One Shilling, if such person shall not have already appeared and pleaded to such indictment, grant unto such Prosecutor or person a Certificate (F) of such indictment having been found; and upon production of such Certificate to any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the District in which the offence shall in such indictment be alleged to have been committed, or in which the person indicted in and by such indictment shall reside or be, or be supposed or suspected to reside or be, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he or they are hereby required to issue his or their Warrant (G) to apprehend such person so indicted, and to cause him to be brought before such Justice or Justices or any other Justice or Justices for the same District, to be dealt with according to law; and afterwards if such person be thereupon apprehended and brought before any such Justice or Justices, such Justice or Justices, upon its being proved upon oath or affirmation before him or them that the person so apprehended is the same person who is charged and named in such indictment, shall, without further inquiry or examination, commit (H) him for trial or admit him to bail in manner hereinafter mentioned; or if such person so indicted shall be confined in any gaol or prison for any other offence than that charged in the said indictment at the time of such application and production of such Certificate to such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he or they are hereby required, upon its being proved before him or them upon oath or affirmation, that the person so indicted and the person so confined in prison are one and the same person, to issue his or their Warrant (I), directed to the Gaoler or Keeper of the gaol or prison in which the person so indicted shall then be confined as aforesaid, commanding him to detain such person in his custody, until, by Her Majesty's Writ of Habeas Corpus, he shall be removed therefrom for the purpose of being tried upon the said indictment, or until he shall be otherwise removed or discharged out of his custody by due course of law: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent the issuing or execution of Bench Warrants, whenever any Court of Competent Jurisdiction may think proper to order the issuing of any such Warrant.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace to grant or issue any Warrant as aforesaid, or any Search Warrant, on a Sunday as well as on any other day.

IV. And be it enacted, That in all cases when a charge or complaint for any indictable offence shall be made before such Justice or Justices aforesaid, if it be intended to issue a Warrant in the first instance against such party or parties so charged, an information and complaint thereof (A) in writing, on the oath or affirmation of the informant, or of some witness or witnesses in that behalf, shall be laid before such Justice or Justices: Provided always, that in all cases when it is intended to issue a Summons instead of a Warrant in the first instance, it shall not be necessary that such information and complaint shall be in writing, or be sworn to or affirmed in manner aforesaid; but in every such case such information and complaint may be by parole merely, and without any oath or affirmation whatsoever to support or substantiate the same: Provided also, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any such information or complaint for any alleged defect therein in substance or in form, or for any variance between it and the evidence adduced on the part of the prosecution, before the Justice or Justices who shall take the examination of the witnesses on that behalf as hereinafter mentioned, and if any credible Witness shall prove upon oath (E1) before a Justice of the Peace, that there is reasonable cause to suspect that any property whatsoever, on or with respect to which any larceny or felony shall have been committed, is in any dwelling house, out house, garden, yard, croft or other place or places, the Justice may grant a Warrant (E2) to search such dwelling house, garden, yard, croft or other place or places, for such property.

V. And be it enacted, That upon such information and complaint being so laid as aforesaid, the Justice or Justices receiving the same may, if he or they shall think fit, issue his or their Summons or Warrant respectively as hereinbefore directed, to cause the person charged as aforesaid to be and appear before him or them, or any other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same District, to be dealt with according to law: and every such Summons (C) shall be directed to the party so charged in and by such information, and shall state shortly the matter of such information, and shall require the party to whom it is directed to be and appear at a certain time and place therein mentioned, before the Justice who shall issue such Summons, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same District as may then be there, to answer to the said charge, and to be further dealt with according to law; and every such Summons shall be served by a Constable or other Peace Officer upon the person to whom it is so directed, by delivering the same to the party personally, or, if he cannot conveniently be met with, then by leaving the same for him with some person at his last or most usual place of abode; and the Constable or other Peace Officer who shall have served the same in manner aforesaid, shall attend at the time and place, and before the Justices in the said Summons mentioned, to depose, if necessary, to the service of such Summons; and if the person so served shall not be and appear before such Justice or Justices, at the time and place mentioned in such Summons, in obedience to the same, then it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, to issue his or their Warrant (D) for apprehending the party so summoned, and bringing him before such Justice or Justices, or before some other Justice or Justices for the same District, to answer the charge in the said information and complaint mentioned, and to be further dealt with according to law: Provided always, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any such Summons or Warrant for any alleged defect; therein in substance or in form, or for any variance between it and the evidence adduced on the part of the Prosecutor before the Justice or Justices who shall take the examination of the Witnesses in that behalf as hereinafter mentioned; but if any such variance shall appear to such Justice or Justices to be such that the party charged has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, at the request of the party so charged, to adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day, and, in the meantime, to remand the party so charged, or admit him to bail in manner hereinafter mentioned.

VI. And be it enacted, That every Warrant (B) hereafter to be issued by any Justice or Justices of the Peace to apprehend any person charged with any indictable offence, shall be under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of the Justice or Justices issuing the same, and may be directed to all or any of the Constables or other Peace Officers of the District within which the same is to be executed, or to such Constable and all other Constables or Peace Officers in the District within which the Justice or Justices issuing the same has or have jurisdiction, or generally to all the Constables or Peace Officers within such last mentioned District; and it shall state shortly the offence on which it is founded, and shall name or otherwise describe the offender; and it shall order the person or persons to whom it is directed to apprehend the offender, and bring him before the Justice or Justices issuing such Warrant, or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same District, to answer to the charge contained in the said information, and to be further dealt with according to law; and it shall not be necessary to make such Warrant returnable at any particular time, but the same may remain in force until it shall be executed; and such Warrant may be executed by apprehending the offender at any place within the District within which the Justice or Justices issuing the same shall have jurisdiction, or, in case of fresh pursuit, at any place in the next adjoining District, and within seven miles of the border of such first mentioned District, without having such Warrant backed, as hereinafter mentioned; and in all cases where such Warrant shall be directed to all Constables or other Peace Officers within the District within which such Justice or Justices shall have jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for any Constable or other Peace Officer for any place within such District to execute the said Warrant at any place within the jurisdiction for which said Justice or Justices shall have acted when he or they granted such Warrant, in like manner as if such Warrant were directed specially to such Constable by name, and notwithstanding the place within which such Warrant shall be executed shall not be within the place for which he shall be Constable or Peace Officer; provided always, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any such Warrant for any defect therein, in substance or in form, or for any variance between it and the evidence adduced on the part of the prosecution, before the Justice or Justices who shall take the examination of the Witnesses in that behalf as hereinafter mentioned; but if any such variance shall appear to any such Justice or Justices to be such that the party charged has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, at the request of the party so charged, to adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day, and in the meantime to remand the party so charged, or to admit him to bail in manner hereinafter mentioned.

VII. And be it enacted, That if the person against whom any such Warrant shall be issued, as aforesaid, shall not be found within the jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices by whom the same shall be issued, or if he shall escape, go into, reside or be, or be supposed or suspected to be in any place within this Province, whether in Upper or in Lower Canada out of the jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices issuing such Warrant, it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace within the jurisdiction of whom such person shall so escape or go, or in which he shall reside or be, or be supposed or suspected to be, upon proof alone being made on oath of the hand-writing of the Justice issuing the same, and without any security being given, to make an endorsement (K) on such Warrant, signed with his name, authorizing the execution of such Warrant within the jurisdiction of the Justice making such endorsement, and which endorsement shall be sufficient authority to the person bringing such Warrant, and to all other persons to whom the same was originally directed, and also to all Constables and other Peace Officers of the District where such Warrant shall be so endorsed, to execute the same in such other District, and to carry the person against whom such Warrant shall have issued, when apprehended, before the Justice or Justices of the Peace who first issued the said Warrant, or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same District, or before some Justice or Justices of the District where the offence in the said Warrant mentioned appears therein to have been committed; provided always, that if the Prosecutor or any of the Witnesses upon the part of the prosecution shall then be in the District, County, Division, Riding, City, Town or place where such person shall have been so apprehended, the Constable, or other person or persons who shall have so apprehended such person, may, if so directed by the Justice backing such Warrant, take and convey him before the Justice who shall have so backed the said Warrant, or before some other Justice or Justices for the same District, County, Division, Riding, City, Town or place; and the said Justice or Justices may thereupon take the examination of such Prosecutor or Witnesses, and proceed in every respect in manner hereinafter directed with respect to persons charged before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, with an offence alleged to have been committed in another District than that in which such persons have been apprehended.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if it shall be made to appear to any Justice of the Peace, by the oath or affirmation of any credible person, that any person within the jurisdiction of such Justice is likely to give material evidence for the prosecution, and will not voluntarily appear for the purpose of being examined as a Witness at the time and place appointed for the examination of the witnesses against the accused, such Justice may and is hereby required to issue his Summons (L1) to such person under his Hand and Seal, requiring him to be and appear at a time and place mentioned in such Summons, before the said Justice, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same District as shall then be there, to testify what he shall know concerning the charge made against such accused party; and if any person so summoned shall neglect or refuse to appear at the time and place appointed by the said Summons, and no just excuse shall be offered for such neglect or refusal, then (after proof upon oath or affirmation of such Summons having been served upon such person, either personally or with some person for him at his last or most usual place of abode,) it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices before whom such person should have appeared, to issue a Warrant (L2) under his or their Hands and Seals, to bring and have such person, at a time and place to be therein mentioned, before the Justice who issued the said Summons, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same District as shall then be there, to testify as aforesaid, and which said Warrant may, if necessary, be backed as hereinbefore is mentioned, in order to its being executed out of the jurisdiction of the Justice who shall have issued the same; or if such Justice shall be satisfied by evidence upon oath or affirmation that it is probable that such person will not attend to give evidence unless compelled so to do, then, instead of issuing such Summons, it shall be lawful for him to issue his Warrant (L3) in the first instance, and which, if necessary, may be backed as aforesaid; and if on the appearance of such person so summoned before the said last mentioned Justice or Justices, either in obedience to the said Summons or upon being brought before him or them by virtue of the said Warrant, such person shall refuse to be examined upon oath or affirmation concerning the premises, or shall refuse to take such oath or affirmation, or having taken such oath or affirmation shall refuse to answer such questions concerning the premises as shall then be put to him without giving any just excuse for such refusal, any Justice of the Peace then present and having there jurisdiction, may, by Warrant (L4) under his Hand and Seal, commit the person so refusing to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the District where such person so refusing shall then be, there to remain and be imprisoned for any time not exceeding ten days, unless he shall in the meantime consent to be examined and to answer concerning the Premises.

IX. And be it enacted, That in all cases where any persons shall appear or be brought before any Justice or Justices of the Peace charged with any indictable offence, whether committed in this Province or upon the high seas, or on land beyond the sea, or whether such person appear voluntarily upon Summons or have been apprehended, with or without Warrant, or be in custody for the same or any other offence, such Justice or Justices before he or they shall commit such accused person to prison for trial, or before he or they shall admit him to bail, shall in the presence of such accused person, who shall be at liberty to put questions to any witness produced against him, take the statement (M) on oath or affirmation of those who shall, know the facts and circumstances of the case, and shall put the same in writing, and such depositions shall be read over to and signed respectively by the witnesses who shall have been so examined, and shall be signed also by the Justice or Justices taking the same; and the Justice or Justices before whom any such witness shall appear to be examined as aforesaid, shall, before such witness is examined, administer to such witness the usual oath or affirmation, which such Justice or Justices shall have full power and authority to do; and if upon the trial of the person so accused as first aforesaid, it shall be proved upon the oath or affirmation of any credible witness, that any person whose deposition shall have been taken as aforesaid is dead, or is so ill as not to be able to travel, and if also it be proved that such deposition was taken in presence of the person so accused, and that lie had a full opportunity of cross-examining the witness, then if such deposition purport to be by 1he Justice by or before whom the same purports to have been taken, it shall be lawful to read such deposition as evidence in such prosecution without further proof thereof, unless it shall be proved that such deposition was not in fact signed by the Justice purporting to sign the same.

X. And be it enacted, That after the examinations of all the witnesses on the part of the prosecution as aforesaid shall have been completed, the Justice of the Peace or one of the Justices by or before whom such examination shall have been so completed as aforesaid, shall, without requiring the attendance of the witnesses, read or cause to be read to the accused the depositions taken against him, and shall say to him these words, or words to the like effect: "Having heard the evidence, do you wish to say any thing in answer to the charge? You are not obliged to say any thing unless you desire to do so, but whatever you say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence against you upon your trial;" and whatever the prisoner shall then say in answer thereto shall be taken down in writing (N) and read over to him, and shall be signed by the said Justice or Justices, and kept with the depositions of the witnesses, and shall be transmitted with them as hereinafter mentioned; and afterwards, upon the trial of the said accused person, the same may if necessary be given in evidence against him without further proof thereof, unless it shall be proved that the Justice or Justices purporting to sign the same did not in fact sign the same: Provided always, that the said Justice or Justices, before such accused person shall make any statement, shall state to him and give him clearly to understand that lie has nothing to hope from any promise of favor, and nothing to fear from any threat which may have been holden out to him to induce him to make any admission or confession of his guilt, but that whatever he shall then say may be given in evidence against him upon his trial, notwithstanding such promise or threat: Provided nevertheless, that nothing, herein contained or enacted shall prevent the prosecutor in any case from giving in evidence any admission or confession, or other statement of the person accused or charged, made at any time which by law would be admissible as evidence against such person.

XI. And be it declared and enacted, That the room or building in which such Justice or Justices shall take such examination and statement as aforesaid, shall not be deemed an open Court for that purpose; and it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, in Ins or their discretion, to order that no person shall have access to or be or remain in such room or building without the consent or permission of such Justice or Justices, if it appear to him or them that the ends of Justice will be best answered by so doing.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Justice or Justices before whom any such witness shall be examined as aforesaid, to bind by Recognizance (O1) the Prosecutor, and every such Witness, to appear at the next Court of competent Criminal Jurisdiction at which the accused is to be tried, then and there to prosecute or prosecute and give evidence, or to give evidence, as the case may be, against the party accused, which said Recognizance shall particularly specify the profession, art, mystery or trade of every such person entering into or acknowledging the same, together with his Christian and surname, and the Parish, Township or place of his residence, and if his residence be in a City, Town or Borough, the Recognizance shall also particularly specify the name of the street and the number (if any) of the house in which he resides, and whether lie is owner or tenant thereof, or lodger therein; and the said Recognizance, being duly acknowledged by the person so entering into the same, shall be subscribed by the Justice or Justices before whom the same shall be acknowledged, and a notice (O2) thereof, signed by the said Justice or Justices, shall at the same time be given to the person bound thereby; and the several Recognizances so taken, together with the written information (if any), the depositions, the statement of the accused, and the Recognizance of Bail (if any) in every such case shall be delivered by the said Justice or Justices, or he or they shall cause the same to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Court in which the trial is to be had, before or at the opening of the said Court on the first day of the sitting thereof, or at such other time as the Judge, Justice or person who is to preside at such Court at the said trial shall order and appoint: Provided always, that if any such witness shall refuse to enter into or acknowledge such Recognizance as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices of the Peace by his or their Warrant (P1) to commit him to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the District in which the accused party is to be tried, there to be imprisoned and safely kept until after the trial of such accused party, unless in the meantime such witness shall duly enter into such Recognizance as aforesaid before some one Justice of the Peace for the District in which such Gaol or House of Correction shall be situate: Provided nevertheless, that if afterwards, for want of sufficient evidence in that behalf, or other cause, the Justice or Justices before whom such accused party shall have been brought shall not commit him or hold him to bail, for the offence with which he is charged, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, or for any other Justice or Justices for the same District, by his or their Order (P2) in that behalf, to order and direct the Keeper of such Common Gaol or House of Correction where such witnesses shall be so in custody, to discharge him from the same, and such Keeper shall thereupon forthwith discharge him accordingly.

XIII. And be it enacted, That if from the absence of witnesses, or from any other reasonable cause, it shall become necessary or advisable to defer the examination or further examination of the witnesses for any time, it shall be lawful to and for the Justice or Justices before whom the accused shall appear or be brought by his or their Warrant (Q1) from time to time to remand the party accused for such time as by such Justice or Justices in their discretion shall be deemed reasonable, not exceeding eight clear days at any one time, to the Common Gaol or House of Correction or other Prison, Lock-up house, or place of security in the District for which such Justice of Justices shall then be acting; or if the remand be for a time not exceeding three clear days, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices verbally to order the Constable, or other person in whose custody such party accused may then be, or any other Constable or person to be named by the said Justice or Justices in that behalf, to continue or keep such party accused in his custody, and to bring him before the same or such other Justice or Justices as shall be there acting at the time appointed for continuing such examination: Provided always, that any such Justice or Justices may order such accused party to be brought before, him or them, or before any other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same District, at any time before the expiration of the time for which such party shall be remanded, and the Gaoler or Officer in whose custody he shall then be shall duly obey such Order: Provided also, that instead of detaining the said accused party in custody during the period for which such accused party shall be so remanded, any one Justice of the Peace before whom such party shall so appear or be brought as aforesaid, may discharge him, upon his entering into a Recognizance (Q 2,3,) with or without a Surety or Sureties, at the discretion of such Justice, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place appointed for the continuance of such examination; and if such accused party shall not afterwards appear at the time and place mentioned in such Recognizance, then the said Justice or any other Justice of the Peace who may then and there be present, upon certifying (Q4) upon the back of the Recognizances the non-appearance of such accused party, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace for the District within which such Recognizance shall have been taken, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient primâ facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said accused party.

XIV. And whereas it often happens that a person is charged before a Justice of the Peace with an offence alleged to have been committed in another District than that in which such person has been apprehended, or in which such Justice has jurisdiction, and it is necessary to make provision as to the manner of taking the examinations of the witnesses, and of committing the party accused or admitting him to bail in such a case, Be it therefore enacted, That whenever a person shall appear or be brought before a Justice or Justices of the Peace in the District wherein such Justice or Justices shall have jurisdiction, charged with an offence alleged to have been committed by him within any District wherein such Justice or Justices shall not have jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he or they are hereby required to examine such witnesses, and receive such evidence in proof of the said charge as shall be produced before him or them within his or their jurisdiction; and if in his or their opinion such testimony and evidence shall be sufficient proof of the charge made against such accused party, such Justice or Justices shall thereupon commit him to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the District where the offence is alleged to have been committed, or shall admit him to bail as hereinafter mentioned, and shall bind over the prosecutor (if he have appeared before him or them) and the witnesses by Recognizance accordingly as herein before mentioned; but if such testimony and evidence shall not, in the opinion of such Justice or Justices be sufficient to put the accused party upon his trial for the offence with which he is so charged, then such Justice or Justices shall bind over such witness or witnesses as he shall have examined by Recognizance to give evidence as hereinbefore is mentioned; and such Justice or Justices shall, by Warrant (R1) under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, order the said accused party to be taken before some Justice or Justices of the Peace in and for the District where the offence is alleged to have been committed, and shall at the same time deliver up the information and complaint, and also the depositions and Recognizances so taken by him or them to the Constable who shall have the execution of such last mentioned Warrant, to be by him delivered to the Justice or Justices before whom he shall take the accused, in obedience to the said Warrant, and which said depositions and Recognizances shall be deemed to be taken in the case, and shall be treated to all intents and purposes as if they had been taken by or before the said last mentioned Justice or Justices, and shall, together with such depositions and Recognizances as such last mentioned Justice or Justices shall take in the matter of such charge against the said accused party, be transmitted to the Clerk of the Court where the said accused party is to be tried, in the manner and at the time hereinbefore mentioned, if such accused party shall be committed for trial upon the said charge, or shall be admitted to bail; and in case such accused party shall be taken before the Justice or Justices last aforesaid, by virtue of the said last mentioned Warrant, the Constable or other person or persons to whom the said Warrant shall have been directed, and who shall have conveyed such accused party before such last mentioned Justice or Justices, shall be entitled to be paid his costs and expenses of conveying the said accused party before the said Justice or Justices; and upon the said Constable or other person producing the said accused party before such Justice or Justices, and delivering him into the custody of such person as the said Justice or Justices shall direct or name in that behalf; and upon the said Constable delivering to the said Justice or Justices the Warrant, information (if any), depositions and Recognizances aforesaid, and proving by oath the hand-writing of the Justice or Justices who shall have subscribed the same, such Justice or Justices before whom the said accused party is produced shall thereupon furnish such Constable with a Receipt or Certificate (R2) of his or their having received from him the body of the said accused party, together with the said Warrant, information (if any), depositions and Recognizances, and of his having proved to him or them, upon oath, the hand-writing of the Justice who shall have issued the said Warrant; and the said Constable, on producing such Receipt or Certificate to the Sheriff of the District in which such accused party was apprehended, will be entitled to be paid all his reasonable charges, costs and expenses of conveying such accused party into such other District, and of returning from the same.

XV. And be it enacted, That when any person shall have appeared before any Justice of the Peace charged with any felony, or on suspicion of felony, it shall be lawful for such Justice, jointly with some other Justice of the Peace, to admit such person to bail upon his procuring and producing such Surety or Sureties as in the opinion of such two Justices will be sufficient to ensure the appearance of such person so charged at the time and place when and where he is to be tried for such offence; and thereupon, such two Justices shall take the Recognizance (S 1, 2) of the said accused person and his Surety or Sureties conditioned for the appearance of such accused person at the time and place of trial, and that he will then surrender and take his trial, and not depart the Court without leave: Provided always, that when the offence committed or suspected to have been committed is a misdemeanor, any one Justice may admit to bail in manner aforesaid, and such Justice or Justices may at their discretion require that such bail should justify upon oath as to their sufficiency, which oath the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby authorized to administer: Provided also nevertheless, that no Justice or Justices of the Peace shall admit any person to bail for treason, nor shall any such person be admitted to bail except by order of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, or one of the Judges thereof in vacation.

XVI. And be it enacted, That in all cases where a Justice or Justices of the Peace shall admit to bail any person who shall then be in any prison charged with the offence for which he shall be so admitted to bail, such Justice or Justices shall send to or cause to be lodged with the Keeper of such prison, a Warrant of Deliverance (S3) under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, requiring the said Keeper to discharge the person so admitted to bail if he be detained for no other offence, and upon such Warrant of Deliverance being delivered to or lodged with such Keeper, he shall forthwith obey the same.

XVII. And be it enacted, That when all the evidence offered upon the part of the prosecution against the accused party shall have been heard, if the Justice or Justices of the Peace then present shall be of opinion that it is not sufficient to put such accused party upon his trial for any indictable offence, such Justice or Justices shall forthwith order such accused party, if in custody, to be discharged as to the information then under inquiry; but if in the opinion of such Justice or Justices such evidence is sufficient to put the accused party upon his trial for an indictable offence, or if the evidence given raise a strong or probable presumption of the guilt of such accused party, then such Justice or Justices shall by his or their Warrant (T1) commit him to the common Gaol or House of Correction for the District to which by law he may now be committed, or, in the case of an indictable offence committed on the high seas or on land beyond the sea, to the Common Gaol of the District within which such Justice or Justices shall have jurisdiction, to be there safely kept until he shall be thence delivered by due course of law, or admit him to bail as hereinbefore mentioned.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Constable or any of the Constables, or other persons to whom any Warrant of Commitment shall be directed, authorized by this or any other Act, shall convey such accused person therein named or described to the Gaol or other Prison mentioned in such Warrant, and there deliver him, together with such Warrant, to the Gaoler, Keeper or Governor of such Gaol or Prison, who shall thereupon give such Constable or other person so delivering such prisoner into his custody a receipt (T2) for such prisoner, setting forth the state and condition in which such prisoner was when he was delivered into the custody of such Gaoler, Keeper or Governor; and in all cases where such Constable or other person shall be entitled to his costs or expenses for conveying such person to such prison as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices who shall have committed the accused party, or for any Justice of the Peace in and for the said District wherein the offence is alleged in the said Warrant to have been committed, to ascertain the sum which ought to be paid to such Constable or other person for arresting and conveying such prisoner to such Gaol or Prison, and also the sum which should reasonably be allowed him for his expenses in returning, and thereupon such Justice shall make an Order (T2) upon the Sheriff for the District within which the offence is alleged to have been committed, for payment to such Constable or other person of the sums so ascertained to be payable to him in that behalf; and the said Sheriff, upon such Order being produced to him, shall pay the amount thereof to such Constable or other person producing the same, or to any person who shall produce the same to him for payment.

XIX.
