

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of United Canada, passed in the year 1851. Quebec: Stewart Derbyshire and George Desbarts, 1852.

16 Victoria – Chapter 168

An Act to amend an Act to regulate the Culling and Measurement of Timber. Assented 14th Jane, 1853.

Whereas it is expedient to amend in the manner hereinafter mentioned the Act of the Legislature of this Province, passed in the eighth year of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, An Act lo regulate the culling and measurement of timber, masts, spars, deals, staves and other articles of a like nature, and to repeal a certain Act therein mentioned, and to prevent the employment of incompetent persons to perform the duties assigned to Cullers in and by the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in the measurement of Timber, it shall be the duty of the Culler employed for that purpose, to measure not only the girth of each piece of Timber, but also to measure, personally, with the aid of one competent assistant, the length of each piece of Timber, in all cases where such measurement shall be practicable with the aid of only one assistant; and in the event of any ease arising in which, in the opinion of the Supervisor of Cullers or his Deputy, such measurement cannot he effected with the aid of one assistant only, then it shall be lawful for such Culler to employ an additional competent assistant for that purpose, who, as well as the assistant first above mentioned, shall be approved of by the Supervisor of Cullers or his Deputy.
