

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of United Canada, passed in the year 1854. Quebec: Stewart Derbyshire and George Desbarts, 1854.

18 Victoria – Chapter 233

An Act to incorporate the Asylum of the Good Shepherd of Quebec. Assented to 80th May, 1855.

Whereas an institution hath existed for several years in the City of Quebec under the name of the “Asylum of the Good Shepherd,” for the reformation of repentant females, desirous of withdrawing from vice; And whereas since the establishment of the said Institution, a large number of unfortunate females have taken refuge in the said Asylum, and have become useful members of society; And whereas the undermentioned Directresses of the said Institution have by their Petition prayed that the said Institution may be incorporated, and in consideration of the great benefits which must arise therefrom, it is expedient to grant their prayer: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, as follows:

I. Mesdames Maris Fitzbach Roy, Marie Anne Fiset, Marie Anne Angers, Zoé Blais, and such other persons as shall under the provisions of this Act, become Members of the said Institution, shall be and are hereby declared to be a body politic and corporate, in deed and in name, by the name of the Asylum of the Good Shepherd of Quebec, and by that name shall, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, be able and capable to purchase, acquire, hold, possess and enjoy, and to have, take and receive, for them and their successors, to and for the uses and purposes of the said Corporation, any moveable property, or any immoveable property which may be requisite or necessary for their actual use and occupation; and the same to sell, alienate and dispose of, and to purchase others in their stead, for the same purpose; And any majority of the Members of the Corporation for the time being shall have power and authority to make and establish such By-laws, orders and regulations, not being contrary to this Act, nor to the Laws in force in Lower Canada, as shall be deemed useful or necessary for the interests of the said Corporation, and for the management thereof, and for the admission of Members into the said Corporation, and from time to time to alter, repeal and change the said Bylaws, orders and regulations, or any of them, or those of the said Institution in force at the time of the passing of this Act; and shall and may do, execute and perform all and singular other the matters and things relating to the said Corporation and the management thereof, or which shall or may appertain thereto, subject nevertheless to the rules, regulations, stipulations and provisions hereinafter prescribed and established.

II. Provided always, that the rents, revenues, issues and profits of all property, real or personal, held by the said Corporation, shall be appropriated and applied solely to the purposes of the said

Corporation, and the payment of the expenses to be inclined for objects legitimately connected with or depending on the purposes aforesaid.

III. All and every the estate and property, real and personal, belonging to or hereafter to be acquired by the Members of the said institution as such, and all debts, claims and rights whatsoever, due to them in that quality, shall be and are hereby vested in the Corporation hereby established; and the By-laws, orders and regulations now made or to be made for the management of the said Institution shall be and continue to be the By-laws, orders and regulations of the said Corporation until altered or repealed in the manner herein provided.

IV. The Members of the said Corporation for the time being, or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint such Attorney or Attorneys, Administrator or Administrators of the property of the Corporation, and such Officers and Servants of the said Corporation, as shall be necessary for the well conducting of the business and affairs thereof, and to allow to them such compensation for their services respectively, as shall be reasonable and proper; and all Officers so appointed shall be capable of exercising such other powers and authority for the well governing and ordering of the affairs of the said Corporation as shall be prescribed by the By-laws, orders and regulations of the said Corporation.

V. The said Corporation shall make-annual Returns to both Houses of the Legislature, stating the names of the Members, numbers of Penitents received into the Asylum, and the general state of the endowment and Corporation, which said Returns shall be presented within the first twenty days of the sitting of the Legislature.

VI. This Act shall be deemed a Public Act.
