XXII. No assignee of any bankrupt or insolvent shareholder possessed of shares shall become a member of the Company in respect of such shares as shall be vested in him in such capacity; but such assignee of a bankrupt or insolvent shareholder shall sell and dispose of such shares in the manner and subject to the provisions herein expressed and contained with respect to the sale and transfer of shares.

XXIII. The assignee of any bankrupt or insolvent shareholder in respect of the shares vested in him in such capacity, shall be entitled to receive such dividends as shall have become due and shall remain unpaid, on the shares so vested in him in any such capacity as aforesaid, before his title to the same shares shall have accrued; but no dividend which shall become due on the same shares after his title shall have accrued, shall be payable to or demandable by him, but such last mentioned dividend shall, until some person shall have duly become a shareholder in respect of the same shares, remain in suspense, and shall not be paid until such new holder shall have complied with the regulations and provisions of the Company, in regard to the sale and transfer of shares, whereupon such new holder of the same shares shall be entitled to such last mentioned dividend; and every transfer shall carry with it the profits, interests and shares of capital and surplus or reserve or contingent funds, in respect of the shares transferred, so as to close all the right and interest of the party making such transfer in respect of such transferred shares.

XXIV. If such transmission be by virtue of the marriage of a female Shareholder, the said declaration shall contain a copy of the register of such marriage, and shall declare the identity of the wife with the holder of such share; and if such transmission have taken place by virtue of any

With respect to any share to which several persons may be jointly entitled, all notices directed to be given to the Shareholders, shall be given to such of the said persons whose name shall stand first in the register of Shareholders, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the proprietors of such share, unless any such joint proprietor shall, by writing under his hand, request such notice to be given to any other or all such joint proprietors.

XXVI. If any money be payable to any shareholder, being a minor, idiot, or lunatic, the receipt of the guardian of such minor, or the receipt of the Committee of such idiot or lunatic, shall be a sufficient discharge to the Company for the same.

XXVII. The Company shall not be bound to see to the execution of any trust, whether express, implied, or constructive, to which any of the said shares may be subject, and the receipt of the party in whose name any such share shall stand in the books of the Company, shall from time to time be a sufficient discharge to the Company for any dividend or other sum of money payable in respect of such share; notwithstanding any trusts to which such share may then be subject, and whether or not the Company have had notice of such trusts; and the Company shall not be bound to set; to the application of the money paid upon such receipt.

XXIX. If before or on the day appointed for payment, any Shareholder do not pay the amount of any call to which he may be liable, then such Shareholder shall be liable to pay interest on the same, at the rate of Five Pounds per centum per annum, from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment.

XXX. The Company may, if they think fit, receive from any of the Shareholders willing to advance the same, all or any part of the money due upon their respective shares, beyond the sums actually called for; and upon the principal money so paid in advance, or so much thereof as from time to time shall exceed the amount of the calls made upon the shares in respect of which such advance shall have been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate, not exceeding Five Pounds per centum per annum, as the Shareholder paying such sum in advance and the Company shall agree upon.

XXXI. If at the time appointed by the Company for the payment of any call, the holder of any share fail to pay the amount of such call, the Company may sue such Shareholder for the amount thereof in any court of law or equity Having competent jurisdiction, and may recover the same with interest, at the rate of Five Pounds per centum per annum, from the day on which such call may have been made payable.

XXXII. In any action to be brought by the Company against any Shareholder, to recover any money due for any call, it shall not be necessary to set forth the special matter, but it shall be sufficient for the Company to declare that the defendant is a holder of one share or more in the Company, (stating the number of shares,) and is indebted to the Company in the sum of money to which the calls in arrear shall amount, in respect of one call or more, upon one share or more, (stating the number and the amount of each of such calls) whereby an notion hath accrued to the Company by virtue of this Act.

XXXIII. On the trial of such action it shall be sufficient to prove that the defendant, at the time of making such call, was a holder of one share or more in the Company, and that such call was in fact made, and such notice thereof given, as is directed by this Act; and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call, nor any other matter whatsoever; and thereupon the Company shall be entitled to recover what shall be due upon such call, with interest thereon, unless it shall appear either that any such call exceeds the amount of Two Pounds per share, or that due notice of such call was not given, or that the interval of three months between two successive calls had not elapsed, or that calls amounting to more than the sum of Eight Pounds in one year had been made.

XXXIV. The production of the Register Book of Shareholders of the Company, shall be primâ facie evidence of such defendant being a Shareholder, and of the number and amount of his shares, and of the sums paid in respect thereof.

XXXV. XXXVI. Before declaring any share forfeited, the Directors shall cause notice of such intention to be left at the usual or last known place of abode of the person appearing by the Register Book of Proprietors to be the proprietor of such share; and if the proprietor of any such share be abroad, or if the interest in any such share shall be known by the Directors to have become transmitted otherwise than by transfer as hereinbefore mentioned, but a declaration of such transmission shall not have been registered as aforesaid, and so the address of the parties to whom the same may have been transmitted shall not be known to the Directors, the Directors shall give public notice of such intention in the London Gazette, and also by advertisement in a newspaper as hereinafter provided; and the several notices aforesaid shall be given twenty-one days at least before the Directors shall make such declaration of forfeiture.

XXXVII. Such declaration of forfeiture shall not take effect so as to authorize the sale or other disposition of any share, until such declaration has been confirmed at some general meeting of the Company, to be held after the expiration of two months at the least from the day on which such notice of intention to make such declaration of forfeiture shall have been given, and it shall be lawful for the Company to confirm such forfeiture at any such meeting, and by an order at such meeting, or at any subsequent general meeting, to direct the share so forfeited to be sold or otherwise disposed of; and after such confirmation the Directors may sell the forfeited shares, and either separately or together, or in lots, as to them shall seem fit.

XXXVIII. A declaration in writing by an officer or servant of the Company, or by some credible person (not interested in the matter,) made before any Justice, or before any Master or Master Extraordinary in the Court of Chancery, that the call in respect of a share was made, and notice thereof given, and that default in payment of the call was made, and that the forfeiture of the share was declared and confirmed in manner hereinbefore required, shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated; and such declaration, and the receipt of the Secretary of the Company for the price of such share, shall constitute a good title to such share, and thereupon such purchaser shall be deemed the proprietor of such share, discharged from all calls made prior to such purchase; and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to such purchaser, upon his signing the undertaking to hold the said shares so purchased by him as aforesaid, subject to the provisions of this Act, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to any such sale.

XXXIX. The Company shall not sell or transfer more of the shares of any such defaulter than will be sufficient, as nearly as can be ascertained at the time of such sale, to pay the arrears then due from such defaulter on account of any calls, together with interest, and the expenses attending such sale and declaration of forfeiture; and if the money produced by the sale of any such forfeited share, be more than sufficient to pay all arrears of calls and interest thereon due at the time of such sale, and the expenses attending the declaration of forfeiture and sale thereof, the surplus shall, on demand, be paid to the defaulter, or in default thereof, applied in and towards satisfaction of any calls made thereafter, but prior to such demand being made as last aforesaid, in respect of the remaining unsold shares of such defaulter.

XL. If payment of such arrears of call, and interest and expenses, be made before any share so forfeited and vested in the Company shall have been sold, such share shall revert to the party to whom the same belonged before such forfeiture, in such manner as if such calls had been duly paid.

XLI. No Shareholder of the Company shall be liable for or charged with the payment of any debt or demand due from the Company, beyond the extent of his shares in the capital of the Company not then paid tip.

XLII. If any execution, either at law or in equity, shall have been issued, taken out or used against the lands, properly or effects of the Company, and if there cannot be found sufficient whereon to levy such execution, then such execution may be issued against any of the Shareholders of the Company, to the extent of their shares, respectively, in the capital of the Company, not then paid up: Provided always, that no such execution shall issue against any Shareholder, except upon an order of the Court in which the action, suit, or other proceeding shall have been brought or instituted, made upon motion in open Court, after twenty days' notice in writing to the persons sought to be charged; and upon such motion such Court may order execution to issue accordingly; and for the purpose of ascertaining the names of the Shareholders and the amount of capital remaining to be paid upon their respective shares, it shall be lawful for any person entitled to any such execution, at all reasonable times, to inspect the Register Book of Shareholders without fee.

XLIII. If, by means of any such execution, any shareholder shall have paid any sum of money beyond the amount then due from him in respect of calls already made, and for interest thereon, if any, and all costs and expenses in respect thereof, he shall forthwith be reimbursed such additional sum by the Directors out of the funds of the Company.

XLIV. In case the money hereby authorized to be raised shall be found insufficient for the purposes of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to borrow on mortgage or bond, such sums of money as shall from time to time be authorized to be borrowed by an order of a general meeting of the Company, not exceeding in the whole the sum of one million of pounds, and for securing the repayment of the money so borrowed, with interest, at a rate not exceeding eight per centum, to mortgage all or any of the lands and hereditaments of the Company, and the future calls on the Shareholders of the Company, and to give bonds or mortgages in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XLVI. Every mortgage and bond for securing money borrowed by the Company, shall be by deed under the Common Seal of the Company, wherein the consideration shall be truly stated; and every such mortgage deed or bond may be according to the form in the Schedule (E) or (F) to this Act annexed, or to the like effect.

XLVII. The respective mortgagees shall be entitled, one with another, to their respective proportions of the rents, lands and premises comprised in such mortgage, and of the future calls payable by the Shareholders of the Company, according to the respective sums in such mortgages mentioned to be advanced by such mortgagees, respectively, and to be repaid the sums so advanced, with interest, without any preference one above another, or above the bond-creditors of the Company, by reason of priority of the date of any such mortgage, or of the meeting at which the same was authorized, or on any other account whatsoever.

XLVIII. The respective obligees in such bonds shall proportionally, according to the amount of the money secured thereby, be entitled to be paid out of the property or effects of the Company, and of the future calls payable by the Shareholders of the Company, the respective sums in such bonds mentioned, and thereby intended to be secured, without any preference one above another, or above the mortgagees of the Company, by reason of priority of date of any such bond, or of the meeting at which the same was authorized, or otherwise howsoever.

XLIX. A Register of mortgages and bonds shall be kept by the Secretary, and within fourteen days after the date of any such mortgage or bond, an entry or memorial, specifying the number and date of such mortgage or bond, and the names of the parties thereto, with their proper additions, shall be made in such register; and such register may be perused at all reasonable times by any of the Shareholders, or by any mortgagee or bond-creditor of the Company, or by any person interested in any such mortgage or bond, without fee or reward.

L. From time to time, any party entitled to any such mortgage or bond, may transfer his right and interest therein to any other person, by deed wherein the consideration shall be truly stated; and every such transfer may be according to the form in the Schedule (G) to this Act annexed, or to the like effect.

LI. Within thirty days after the date of every such transfer, if executed within the United Kingdom, or otherwise within thirty days after the arrival thereof in the United Kingdom, it shall be produced to the Secretary, and thereupon the Secretary shall cause an entry or memorial thereof to be made, in the same manner as in the case of the original mortgage, and after such entry, every such transfer shall entitle the transferee, his executors, administrators or assigns, to the full benefit of the original mortgage or bond, in all respects; and no party having made such transfer shall have power to make void, release or discharge the mortgage or bond so transferred, or any money thereby secured; and for such entry the Secretary may demand a sum not exceeding the amount of two shillings and six pence.

LII. The interest of the money borrowed upon any such mortgage or bond, shall be payable and paid half-yearly to the several parties entitled thereto, and in preference to any dividends payable to the Shareholders of the Company.

LIII. The Company may, if they think proper, fix a period for the re-payment of the principal money so borrowed, with the interest thereof, and in such case the Company shall cause such period to be inserted in the mortgage deed or bond, and upon the expiration of such period the principal sum, together with the arrears of interest thereon, shall be paid to the party entitled to such mortgage or bond.

LIV. If no time be fixed in the mortgage deed or bond, for the re-payment of the money as borrowed, the party entitled to the mortgage or bond may, at the expiration, or at any time after the expiration of twelve months from the date of such mortgage or bond, demand payment of the principal money thereby secured, with all arrears of interest, upon giving six months previous notice for that purpose, and the Company may at all times pay off the money borrowed, or any part thereof, on giving the like notice; and such notice, if given by a mortgagee or bond creditor, shall be by writing delivered to the Secretary, and if given by the Company shall be by writing given either personally to such mortgagee or bond-creditor, or if such mortgagee or bond creditor be unknown or cannot be found, such notice shall be given by advertisement in the London Gazette, and in some newspaper as after mentioned; and at the expiration of the said notice, when given by the Company, interest shall cease to be payable on the money secured by such mortgage or bond, unless on demand of such money the Company shall fail to pay the same pursuant to such notice.

LV. Act, or belonging to the Company, then on complaint, thereof being made to a Justice, such Justice shall, by Summons or Warrant, under his hand, cause such officer to be brought before any two or more Justices, and upon such officer being so brought before him, or if such officer cannot be found, then in his absence, such Justice may hear and determine the matter in a summary way, and may adjust and declare the balance owing by such officer; and if it appears, either upon the confession of such officer, or upon evidence, or upon inspection of the account, that any money of the Company is in the hands of such officer, or owing by him to the Company, such Justice may order such officer to pay the same, and if he fail to pay the amount, it shall be lawful for such Justices to grant a Warrant to levy the same by distress, or in default thereof to commit the offender to gaol, there to remain without bail for a period not exceeding three months; and in any of the following cases, that is to say: if any such officer do not appear before the Justices at the time and place appointed for that purpose; or if such officer appear, but fail to make out such account in writing; or if such officer refuse to produce and deliver to the Justices the several vouchers and receipts relating to such account; or if such officer refuse to deliver up any books, papers or writings, property, effects, matters or things in his possession or power, belonging to the Company, such Justices may lawfully commit such offender to Gaol; and in every such case of commitment, the prisoner shall remain in custody without bail, until he have made out and delivered such accounts, and delivered up the vouchers and receipts, if any, relating thereto, in his possession or power, and have delivered up such books, papers, writings, property, effects, matters and things, if any, in his possession or power.
