II. The capital stock of the Bank shall be the aggregate amount authorized by the Act of incorporation in the preceding section mentioned, and the several Acts authorizing an increase of the same, namely, one million five hundred thousand pounds, currency; which capital stock shall be divided into thirty thousand shares of fifty pounds each: And with regard to so many of the said shares as have been subscribed for under and in virtue of the Act passed in the eighteenth year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to amend the Charter and increase the Capital Stock of the Bank of Montreal, but have not yet been wholly paid up, if any holder of such shares refuse or neglect to pay any instalment thereon at the time appointed or to be appointed by the Directors, such Shareholder shall incur a forfeiture, to the use of the Bank, of a sum of money equal to ten pounds per centum on the amount of such shares; and moreover, the Directors may, without any previous formality other than thirty days' public notice of their intention, sell at public auction the said shares, or so many of them as shall, after deducting all reasonable expenses, yield a sum of money sufficient to pay the unpaid instalments due on the remainder of the said shares, and the forfeitures incurred upon the whole; and the President or Cashier of the Bank shall execute the transfer to the purchaser of the shares so sold, and such transfer shall be as valid and effectual in law as if the same had been executed by the original holder of the shares: Provided always, that nothing in this section contained shall be held to debar the Directors, or the Shareholders at a general meeting, from remitting, in whole or in part and conditionally or unconditionally, any forfeiture incurred by the non payment of the instalments as aforesaid.

III. The chief seat or place of business of the Bank shall be in the City of Montreal; but the Directors may, from time to time, open and establish Branches or Agencies of the Bank at other places in this Province; and, for the management of the business of the same, may appoint either local Directors, or Managers, or Agents, or all or any one or more of them, and make such rules and regulations for their guidance as shall not be repugnant, to any law of this Province, to this Act, or to the By-laws of the Bank; Provided always, that no person shall be appointed a local Director, unless he also shall be, and during three months immediately preceding his appointment shall have been, a holder and absolute owner, in his own name and right (and not in trust for any purpose or person, or in trust simply), of not fewer than ten shares wholly paid up, of the capital stock of the Bank, and be also a natural born or a naturalized subject of Her Majesty.

II. XV. No Cashier, Manager, Agent, Clerk or other Officer or Servant of the Bank, shall vote either in person or by proxy, at any meeting for the election of Directors, nor hold a proxy for the purpose.

XVI. Every share of the capital stock shall be held to be personal estate, and be transmissible accordingly, and also, shall be transferable, at the Bank, according to the form of Schedule A, annexed to this Act; but no transfer shall be valid and effectual unless it be made and registered in a book to be kept at the Bank for that purpose, and be therein accepted by the party to whom the transfer shall be made, or his lawful Attorney; nor shall any transfer be made or allowed until the transferring party shall have previously discharged all his debt and liabilities to the Bank exceeding in amount the value of his remaining shares, if any, unless with the consent of the Directors; and no fractional part or parts of a share shall be transferable: Provided always, that the Directors may,, from time to time, make any given number of the shares of the capital stock transferable, and the dividends arising thereon payable, in the United Kingdom, in like manner as such shares and dividends are now, respectively, transferable and payable at the Bank in the City of Montreal; and to that end, the Directors may, from time to time, make and prescribe such rules, regulations and forms, and appoint such Agent or Agents, as they may deem necessary.

XVII. The transmission of the interest in any share of the capital stock, in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of a Shareholder, or of the marriage of a female Shareholder, or by any other lawful means than an ordinary transfer under the preceding section, shall be authenticated by a declaration in writing, made and signed by the party claiming the transmission, or his lawful Attorney, or in such other manner as the Directors shall require; every such declaration shall distinctly state the manner in which, and the party to whom the transmission has been made; and shall be, by the party making and signing the same, acknowledged before a Judge of a Court of Record, or before the Mayor, Provost or Chief Magistrate of a city, town, borough or other place, or before a Public Notary, or before a Cashier, Manager or local Agent of the Bank, at the place where the same shall be made and signed; and when so signed and acknowledged shall be left with the Cashier, Transfer Clerk or other officer of, and at the Bank in the City of Montreal, together with such, original or officially authenticated documents or extracts, as shall be necessary to substantiate the essential averments in the declaration; and thereupon, the party claiming and proving the transmission shall be entitled to have his name duly recorded in the register of Shareholders, in lieu of the name of the original Shareholder from whom the share was transmitted; and until the transmission shall have been authenticated as aforesaid, no person claiming the transmission shall be entitled to receive any share of the profits of the Bank, or to vote in respect of the share in question; and any person wilfully making a false declaration, shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished accordingly; Provided always, that every such declaration as shall be made and signed elsewhere than in the British dominions, shall be further authenticated by, or shall be directly acknowledged before the British Consul, Vice-Consul, or other accredited representative of the British Government in the country where the declaration shall be made: And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be held to debar the Bank, or the Directors, Cashier, Transfer Clerk, or other officer or agent of the Bank, from requiring further corroborative and authentic evidence of any essential fact or facts alleged in any such declaration, or touching the transmission claimed by, or the identity of the party claiming the same.

XVIII. If the transmission of a share of the capital stock of the Bank be by virtue of the marriage of a female Shareholder, the declaration of transmission shall be made and signed by such female Shareholder and her husband; and it shall be competent to them to include therein a declaration to the effect that the share transmitted is the sole property, and under the sole control of the wife, that she may receive and grant receipts for the dividends and profits accruing in respect thereof, and dispose of and transfer the share itself, without requiring the consent or authority of her husband; and such declaration shall be binding upon the Bank and the parties making the same, until the said parties shall see fit to revoke it by a written notice to that effect to the Bank; and further, the omission of a statement in any such declaration, that the wife making the same is duly authorized by her husband to make the same, shall not cause the declaration to be deemed either illegal or informal; any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIX. The Bank shall not be bound to see to the execution of any trust, whether express, implied, or constructive, to which any share of the Bank may be subject, and the receipt of the party in whose name any such share shall stand in the books of the Bank, or if it stand in the names of more parties than one, the receipt of one of the parties, shall, from time to time, be a sufficient discharge to the Bank for any dividend, bonus, or other sum of money, payable in respect of such share, notwithstanding any trust to which such share may then be subject, and whether or not the Bank have had notice of such trust; and the Bank shall not be bound to see to the application of the money paid upon such receipt; any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XX. The Bank shall not, either directly or indirectly, acquire or hold any real estate, other than such as by the first section of this Act they are authorized to acquire and hold; nor any ship or other vessel; nor any share of their own capital stock, or of the capital stock of any other incorporated or unincorporated Company; nor shall the Bank, either directly or indirectly, lend money or make advances upon the security, mortgage or hypothecation of any real estate, or of any share of their own capital stock, or of any goods, wares or merchandize; nor shall the Bank, either directly or indirectly, raise loans of money, or deal in the buying, selling or bartering of goods, wares or merchandize, or engage or be engaged in any trade whatever, except as dealers in gold and silver bullion, bills of exchange, discounting of promissory notes, and negotiable securities for money, and in such trade, generally, as legitimately appertains to the business of banking; Provided always, that the Bank may take and hold mortgages and hypothecs on real estate in this Province, and on ships and other vessels, and security on personal property, by way of additional security for debts contracted to the Bank in the course of their dealings; and also, for such purpose, may purchase and take any outstanding mortgages, judgments or other charges, upon the real or personal property of any Debtor of the said Bank.

XXI. The aggregate amount of discounts and advances made by the Bank upon commercial paper or securities bearing the name of any Director, or the partnership name of any Director of the Bank, shall never, at any one time, exceed one twentieth of the total amount of the discounts and advances made by the Bank at the same time.

XXII. The Bank may allow and pay interest, not exceeding the legal rate in this Province, upon moneys deposited in the Bank; and, in discounting promissory notes, bills, or other negotiable securities or paper, may receive or retain the discount thereon at the time of discounting or negotiating the same; and when notes, bills, or other negotiable securities or paper, are bonâ fide payable at a place within the Province, different from that at which they are discounted, the Bank may also in addition to the discount, receive or retain an amount not exceeding one half per centum on the amount of every such note, bill or other negotiable security or paper, to defray the expenses of agency and exchange attending the collection of every such note, bill, or other negotiable security or paper; and the Bank may charge any note or bill held by and payable at the Bank, against the deposit account of the maker of such note or acceptor of such bill, at the maturity thereof; any law, statute or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIII. The bonds, obligations and bills, obligatory and of credit, of the Bank, under the common seal, and signed by the President or Vice-President, and countersigned by the Cashier, or other officer appointed by the Bank, which shall be made payable to any person or persons, shall be assignable by endorsement under the hand or hands of such person or persons, and of his or their assign or assigns, and so as absolutely to transfer and vest the property thereof in the several assigns, successively, and to enable such assign or assigns to bring and maintain an action or actions thereon, in his or their own name or names; and signification of any such assignment by endorsement shall not be necessary, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; and bills or notes of the Bank, signed by the President or Vice-President, or by a Cashier or other officer appointed by the Bank in that behalf, promising the payment of money to any person or persons, or to his or their order, or to the bearer, though not under the common seal, shall be binding and obligatory upon the Bank, and shall be assignable and negotiable in like manner as if they were made and issued by a private person in his natural capacity.
